Lough Derg Legendary Pilgrimage:

Lough Derg, Legendary Pilgrimage John B. Cunningham, 1984 Lough Derg and Its Pilgrimages Daniel O'Connor, 1879

Visions of the Other World in Middle English Robert Easting, 1997 This bibliography covers visions of Heaven and Hell or more usually Purgatory and Earthly Paradise in 19 medieval texts relating seven visions the vision of St Paul or the Eleven Pains of Hell St Patrick's purgatory the vision of Tundale a revelation of purgatory the revelation of the Monk of Eynsham the vision of Fursey and the vision of Edmund Leversedge Pilgrimage in Ireland Peter Harbison, 1995-06-01 The landscape of Ireland is rich with ancient carved stone crosses tomb shrines Romanesque churches round towers sundials beehive huts Ogham stones and other monuments many of them dating from before the 12th century The purpose and function of these artifacts have often been the subject of much debate Peter Harbison proposes in this book a radical hypothesis that a great many of these relics can be explained in terms of ecclesiastical pilgrimage He has constructed a fascination theory about the palace of pilgrimage in the early Christian period placing it right at the center of communal life The monuments themselves make much better sense if it looked at in this light as having come into existence not through the practices of ascetic monks but because of the activities of pilgrims He begins by searching the historical sources in detail for evidence of early pilgrimage sites By examining their monuments he projects the findings to other locations where pilgrimage has not been documented He goes on to describe monument types of every kind and to identify pilgrims in sculpture surviving from before AD 1200 The Dingle Peninsula in Kerry proves to be a microcosm of pilgrimage monuments enabling the author to reconstruct a tradition of maritime pilgrimage activity up and down the west coast of Ireland Indeed the famous medieval traveler's tale of the fabulous voyage of the St Brendan the Navigator can now be seen as the literary expression of a longstanding maritime pilgrimage along the Atlantic seaways of Ireland and Scotland reaching Iceland Greenland and even North America Image and Pilgrimage in Christian Culture Victor Witter Turner, Edith L. B. Turner, 1978 This classic book now updated and extensively revised examines the theological doctrines and popular notions that promote and sustain Christian pilgrimage including their corresponding symbols and images William Carleton, the Authentic Voice Gordon Brand, 2006 The William Carleton Summer School is one of the most important literary festivals on the island in that there are very few that make a point of studying an aspect of Ireland before the Great Famine William Carleton 1794-1869 is the greatest author to have written about the Irish peasant and the Ireland of the period immediately preceding it he enables the reader to think back past the Famine into the culture particularly the peasant culture of that time confused rich tortured bilingual that made him as a writer Enjoying immense popularity during his lifetime his popularity dwindled but a century after his death it began to revive not least because of the influence of the Summer School The lectures given at the School and revised for publication in William Carleton The Authentic Voice provide ample evidence that he was one of the greatest entertainers of Irish literature in English The Tourism Imaginary and Pilgrimages to the Edges of the World Nieves Herrero, Sharon R. Roseman, 2015 This book examines how the growth of tourism in locations that have historically been considered geographically remote plays a major role in the consolidation and transformation of often longstanding and powerful cultural imaginaries about the edges of the world The contributors examine the attraction of the sublime remoteness continental border points and the dangers of the sea in Finisterre or Fisterra in Galicia Spain Finistère in Brittany France Land's End Cornwall England Lough Derg Ireland Nordkapp or North Cape Norway Cape Spear Newfoundland Canada and Tierra del Fuego Argentina While those travelling to these locations can be seen to be conducting some form of religious or secular pilgrimage those who live in them have long contended with the implications of economic and political marginalization within global political economies

My Self, My Muse Patricia Boyle Haberstroh, 2001-07-01 A unique look into the minds and creative processes of contemporary Irish women poets this book focuses on the transformation of their life experiences into poetry that blends personal identity with national identity It assembles many voices around common themes that are emerging to change Irish poetry permanently Patricia Boyle Haberstroh whose book Women Creating Women Contemporary Irish Women Poets was a Choice Outstanding Academic book in 1996 shows in this new work how nine of the most prolific Irish women writers generate their poetry broadening our understanding of the context of the poems She pairs each author's verse with a companion and often autobiographical prose piece to illuminate the ways in which the poetry expresses the poet's personal experience As women in a politically and religiously charged male dominated genre and country these poets feel compelled to transcend daily life by articulating against the norm In this book they describe the issues they confronted in their growth as poets and the strategies they developed to translate life into art In linking these poets drawn from Northern Ireland and England as well as the Republic of Ireland Haberstroh throws into relief the characteristics that define their unique individual subjects themes and styles

Visions in Late Medieval England Gwenfair Walters Adams, 2007-02-01 Visions were highly popular in the late Middle Ages whether preached as vivid stories from the pulpit illuminated in saint filled manuscripts or experienced during the breathless anticipation of a Mass or eerie darkness of a Yorkshire graveyard This volume is the first to map out the wide range of vision types in late medieval English lay piety Analyzing 1000 visionary accounts gathered from sermon and exempla collections religious devotional works saints legends and lay stories it explores five central dynamics of spirituality that visions shaped and sustained Transactions of Satisfaction visits to and from purgatory and hell Reciprocated Devotion visitations of the saints Spiritual Warfare attacks by demons Supra Sacramental Sight Mass and Passion sightings and Mediated Revelation prophetic visions The Irish Ecclesiastical Record ,1891

Celtic Britain and the Pilgrim Movement Griffith Hartwell Jones,1912 Excerpt from Celtic Britain and the Pilgrim Movement The growth Of religious thought Ethnic Hebrew or Christian besides being Of supreme moment is Of an interest so perennial that no apology should be needed for presenting any evidence not hitherto easily accessible It has been my custom for some years whilst occupied with the study Of ecclesiastical history to jot down or at least to make a mental note of anything that seemed specially to bear upon Wales Cornwall Ireland or Scot land and as I pursued my investigations begun solely for the satisfaction Of my own curiosity the cultural Significance Of the pilgrim movement was strongly borne in upon my mind Whether we consider its many sided character its human elements its doctrinal import its intellectual fertility or the tenacity Of this irrepressible instinct throughout the ages it appears to challenge comparison with any other field Of enquiry and after a considerable amount Of material had accumulated it was more than once pointed out to me that the publica tion Of what I had garnered might serve a useful pur pose a suggestion in which the Honourable Society of Cymmrodorion readily acquiesced The pleasure which the preparation of the work has afforded me during years of enforced exile will be enhanced tenfold if it proves that my expatriation has not prevented me from rendering Wales some service by throwing light upon an Obscure and neglected phase Of her religious and mental evolution Whilst the work was being shaped the question Of method cost me much thought Assuming that manyreaders would be unfamiliar with both the Celtic and the ecclesiological aspects of the subject I was obliged to steer between the Scylla of redundance and _the Charybdis of compression and baldness Just as I was speculating how to escape from this dilemma I had an opportunity oi discussing the main lines Of procedure with an historian and literary critic on whose long ex perience I could confidently rely and he confirmed my views When the work had been revised he was kind enough to read through portions of the manu script which might still be in doubt and as the follow ing letter shows saw no reason to change his Opinion Upon every occasion your method of proceeding has been fully justified on two grounds The contents of the book are in many cases such as to require a careful pre liminary preparation for what is to follow and the work contains hardly anything that could be spared without detriment to the whole You are obliged to give in formation for want of which the work would be positively unintelligible to most people Though I am not unac quainted with ecclesiastical history Often found the sort of focussing of general principles before adducing the new evidence in which the work abounds of great assistance in forming a comprehension of the fresh material On the other hand it is certain that among those whose keenest attention will be directed to its Celtic features there will be many as ignorant of ecclesiology as others are of Celtic history The Celtic scholar s need of some guidance when ecclesiastical history is put before him is in fact not only excusable but a phenomenon that will appear natural to anyone who has ever seriously studied anything About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com Irish Monthly Magazine ,1895
