Louisiana in the Short Story Lizzie Carter McVoy,      Strange true stories of Louisiana George Washington Cable,1970      Strange True Stories of Louisiana George Cable,1994-05-30

At the turn of the century people outside of New Orleans viewed the city through the eyes of journalist and author George Washington Cable His writings portrayed a tropical European city nestled on the banks of an American river still teeming with the literary artistic and social developments of a late Renaissance In his own romance with Louisiana Cable came upon many stories written by its denizens While Cable assisted some authors in finding places to publish their works there were many stories he kept for himself Much of this collection can now be found in Strange True Stories of Louisiana They are mine by right of discovery writes Cable From various necessities of the case I am sometimes the story teller and sometimes in the reader's interest have to abridge but I add no fact and trim naught of value away Here are no unconfessed restorations not one In time place circumstance in every essential feature I give them as I got themstrange stories that truly happened all partly some wholly in Louisiana Strange True Stories of Louisiana is Cable s compilation of seven unusual factual accounts of life and history in the area They include tales of two French sisters who made the dangerous trek to the unsettled lands of North Louisiana at the beginning of the nineteenth century Focusing on New Orleans Cable adds the story of The Haunted House in Royal Street which spurs the imaginations of ghost hunters more than a century after its original writing There is also a diary account in its first published form of a Union woman trapped behind the battle lines during the Civil War     The French Literature of Louisiana Ruby Van Allen Caulfeild,1929     Race and Culture in New Orleans Stories James Nagel,2014-02-14 All of these historical factors energize and enrich the fiction of this important region The literary context of these volumes is also central to understanding their place in literary history They are short story cycles collections of short fiction that contain unifying settings recurring characters or character types and central themes and motifs They are also examples of the local color tradition in fiction a movement that has been much misunderstood Nagel maintains that local color literature was meant to be the highest form of American writing not the lowest and its objective was to capture the locations folkways values dialects conflicts and ways of life in the various regions of the country in order to show that the lives of common citizens were sufficiently important to be the subject of serious literature     The Best Short Stories of ... and the Yearbook of the American Short Story ,1929     The Background of the Louisiana Short Story Frances Elizabeth Jones,1935*     Short Story ,1999     Century Readings in the American Short Story Fred Lewis Pattee,1927     The Development of the American Short Story Fred Lewis Pattee,1923     Bulletin Missouri. Department of Education,1925     2003 Novel and Short Story Writer's Market Anne Bowling,Vanessa Lyman,2002 Extensive market listings provide accurate up to date information on commercial and literary publishers magazines and more     Literatures in the Digital Era Dolores Romero,Amelia Sanz,2009-03-26 The application of technology to information communication and culture has been through the history of humanity a key factor in social progress and well being Literatures in the Digital Era Theory and Praxis analyses in its twenty chapters the impacts of digital technology for the contemporary culture The literary system is being powerfully affected in three aspects In the first place computer resources have been used to preserve and edit literary texts associating to them graphical material links with related texts or with dictionaries and above all developing search tools of concordance and syntactic semantic analysis Secondly we are watching the birth of a digital literature with new generic characteristics new creators with knowledge of both technological mechanisms and literary resources and a reader capable of interpreting and enjoying texts on the screen Thirdly literary theory has expressed new postulates with regard to the multiple authorship of digital texts the disintegration of the textual meaning the intertextuality and implications of the reader in the creation process and the interpretation of the texts These three impacts imply for some authors the search of a new paradigm for the creation reading and interpretation of digital texts which points to a new humanism     Louisiana in the Short Story.
