Wife in Name Only Charlotte Mary Brame, 2020-09-28 I cannot say that I am sorry he continued for I love my wife very dearly but I do wish now that I had been less hurried less precipitate My wife s great loveliness must be my excuse She is the daughter of a poor curate the Reverend Charles Trevor who came two years ago to supply temporarily the place of the Rector of Lynton He brought his daughter with him and the first moment I saw her I fell in love with her My heart seemed to go out from me and cleave to her I loved her with what I can see now was the selfish ardor of a young man I had but one thought to win her I wrote to my father who was in Italy and asked his consent He refused it in the most decided manner and told me to think no more of what after all was but a boy s fancy He was then staying near the Lake of Como staying for the benefit of his health and I went over to see him I pleaded prayed urged my great love all in vain The earl my father only laughed at me and said all young men suffered from the fever called love I came back to England and found that Mr Trevor was dead Madaline his daughter was left alone in the world She raised her beautiful face to mine poor child and tried to smile while she talked of going out into the world and of working hard for her daily bread and as I listened my love seemed to grow stronger and deeper I caught her in my arms and swore that nothing should part us that come what would she must be my wife She was very unwilling not that she did not love me but because she was afraid of making my father angry that was her great objection She knew my love for him and his affection for me She would not come between us It was in vain that I prayed her to do as I wished After a time she consented to a compromise to marry me without my father s knowledge It was a folly I own now I see clearly its imprudence then I imagined it the safest and surest way I persuaded her as I had persuaded myself that when my father once knew that we were married he would forgive us and all would go well We were married eleven months since and I have been so happy since then that it has seemed to me but a single day My beautiful young wife was frightened at the bold step we had taken but I soothed her I did not take her home to Wood Lynton but laying aside all the trappings of wealth and title we have traveled from place to place as Mr and Mrs Charlewood enjoying our long honeymoon If we liked any one particular spot we remained in it But a letter from Italy came like a thunderbolt my father had grown rapidly worse and wanted to see me at once If I had been content to go at once all would have been well I could not endure that he should die without seeing loving and blessing my wife Madaline I told her my desire and she consented most cheerfully to accompany me I ought to have known that in her state of health traveling was most injurious but I was neglectful of the fact I listened only to my heart s desire that my father should see my wife before he died We started on our fatal journey only this morning At first my wife seemed to enjoy it and then I saw all the color fading from her sweet face I saw her lips grow white and tremble and I became alarmed It was not until we reached Castledene that she gave in and told me she could go no further Still you say there is no danger and that you do not think she will die Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress.
