We Speak a Different Tongue Yoonjoung Choi, Anthony Patterson, 2015-09-18 We Speak a Different Tongue Maverick Voices and Modernity 1890-1939 challenges the critical practice of privileging modernism In so doing the volume makes a significant contribution to contemporary debates about re-visioning literary modernism questioning its canon and challenging its aesthetic parameters By utilizing the term modernity rather than modernism the 16 essays housed in this volume foreground the writers who have been marginalised by both their contemporary modernist writers and literary scholars while exploring the way in which these authors responded to the tensions

The Ethics of Modernity Richard Münch, 2001 Based on intensive long term study this comparative book traces the role of ethics in the formation of modernity in four Western nations the US Britain France and Germany Münch's analysis spans several centuries of historical and political development While ethics has played a clear role in the West's transition to modernity he shows that its role has varied substantially and that it has influenced the development of each nation's political and social institutions. The book begins with an assessment of the ethics of the West in contrast with the East. M nch then looks at the formation of the ethics of modernity from ancient Judaism to ascetic Protestantism and modern secularized culture. The Ethics of Modernity builds a systematic reconstruction of the ethical formation of modernity in its different stages and variations concluding with current globalization trends.

The Mind of Modernism Mark S. Micale, 2004. This vanguard collection of original and in depth essays explores the intricate interplay of the aesthetic and psychological domains during the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries and considers the reasons why a common Modernist project took shape when and in the circumstances that it did. These changes occurred precisely when the distinctively modern disciplines of psychology, psychiatry and psychoanalysis established their scientific foundations and achieved the forms in which we largely know them today. This volume examines the dense web of connections joining the aesthetic and psychological realms in the modern era, charting historically the emergence of the ongoing modern discussion surrounding such issues as identity formation, sexuality and the unconscious. The contributors form a distinguished and diversified group of scholars who write about a wide range of cultural fields including philosophy, the novel and poetry, drama, dance, film and photography as well as medicine, psychology and the occult sciences.

Stressing the Modern Anne Vickery, 2007. Stressing the Modern: Cultural Politics in Australian Women's Poetry is the first major study of women's poetic careers in early twentieth century Australia. This was a particularly prolific period for women poets as a rapidly changing social climate generated new, often still ambivalent identities around gender, race, class and nation. Negotiating the modern landscape and the modern psyche through the complex effects of Federation, the suffrage movement, World War I, increasing industrialisation and urbanisation and advances in technology necessitated innovations in poetic form and a rethinking of authorship This exciting study examines the increasing visibility and popularity of women as poets their shaping of literary tastes through editing and criticism their cross influence and friendships and the resulting backlash within Australian literary circles Furthermore it traces how these writers mediated their experiences of travel expatriation and transnationalism against the desire to produce a literature of difference that is poetry that was regionally or culturally distinct Using extensive archival material Stressing the Modern offers a new understanding of the emergence of literary modernism in Australia It demonstrates the significance of poetry as both a popular and a radical site for articulating modern lives and their concerns Twentieth-century Literary Movements Dictionary Helene Henderson, Jay P.
