New Sacred Architecture:

New Sacred Architecture Phyllis Richardson, 2004 This timely book reflects an awakening of interest in religious faiths and the emergence of a global exchange of architecture and culture While Spain's Rafael Moneo has recently completed a cathedral in Los Angeles Britain's Thomas Heatherwick is designing a Buddhist temple in Japan John Pawson is working on a Cistercian monastery in the Czech Republic and Richard Meier has completed his Jubilee Church in Rome It seems as one Wallpaper registered pundit commented religion is getting a redesign and the architect's faith is as unimportant as his or her nationality I Looking at ways in which contemporary architects are approaching religious or meditative space this book focuses on churches chapels temples synagogues and mosques that have been built in the last few years and that represent a late twentieth early twenty first century aesthetic

New Spiritual Architecture Phyllis Richardson, 2004 New Spiritual Architecture looks at ways in which contemporary architects are approaching religious or meditative space The book focuses on churches chapels temples synagogues and mosques that have been built in the last few years and that represent a late twentieth early twenty first century aesthetic These buildings demonstrate how new ideas and developments in urban domestic and public architecture are being used to inform design that is intended for inspiration worship or meditation The text discusses the ways in which architects manipulate light and space and considers the placement of these buildings in their surroundings Following a brief introduction the book explores the following five themes New Traditions Interventions Retreats Grand Icons and Modest Magnificence It includes 200 full color illustrations and 100 line drawings BOOK JACKET

Houses of God Michael J. Crosbie, 2006 The subject of architecture for religion continues to fascinate Houses of God Religious Architecture for a New Millennium by noted author and architect Michael J Crosbie demonstrates an inspiring array of gathering places for worship collected from the USA and abroad These projects illustrated with superb photography and detailed plans demonstrate how architects and congregations can work together to build places that satisfy often complex cultural and personal needs There are churches synagogues and temples by some of the world's leading architects including Tadao Ando Architect and Associates Heinz Tesar Gould Evans and many others AUTHOR Michael J Crosbie is an architect author journalist and teacher He is the author of numerous books on architecture and has written for a number of journals and magazines He is currently the assistant editor at Faith andamp Form teaches architecture at Roger Williams University and has lectured at architecture schools in North America and abroad SELLING POINTS Third title in IMAGES sell out religious architecture series that has a captive and loyal returning audience around the world New layout and design Superb colour photography captures the latest designs and renovations for over fifty churches synagogues temples and inter faith centres each drawing either from age old tradition or daring to chart new waters for religious expression Features project descriptions and many plans Authored by renowned author and professor Michael J Crosbie Architecture for Architects Architecture for the Gods I and II Editor in Chief of InterFaith and Form magazine Former editor of Progressive

Architecture and Architecture magazines 288 col 58 b w Sacred architecture, its rise, progress and present state Richard Brown,1845 Modernism and American Mid-20th Century Sacred Architecture Anat Geva,2018-10-08 Mid 20th century sacred architecture in America sought to bridge modernism with religion by abstracting cultural and faith traditions and pushing the envelope in the design of houses of worship Modern architects embraced the challenges of creating sacred spaces that incorporated liturgical changes evolving congregations modern architecture and innovations in building technology The book describes the unique context and design aspects of the departure from historicism and the renewal of heritage and traditions with ground breaking structural features deliberate optical effects and modern aesthetics The contributions from a pre eminent group of scholars and practitioners from the US Australia and Europe are based on original archival research historical documents and field visits to the buildings discussed Investigating how the authority of the divine was communicated through new forms of architectural design these examinations map the materiality of liturgical change and communal worship during the mid 20th century Water and Sacred Architecture Anat Geva,2023-05-25 This edited book examines architectural representations that tie water as a physical and symbolic property with the sacred The discussion centers on two levels of this relationship how water influenced the sacredness of buildings across history and different religions and how sacred architecture expressed the spiritual meaning of water The volume deliberately offers original material on various unique contextual and design aspects of water and sacred architecture rather than an attempt to produce a historic chronological analysis on the topic or focusing on a specific geographical region As such this unique volume adds a new dimension to the study of sacred architecture The book s chapters are compiled by a stellar group of scholars and practitioners from the US Canada Europe Asia and Africa It addresses major aspects of water in religious buildings such as rituals pilgrimage water as a cultural material and place making hydro systems modern practices environmental considerations the contribution of water to transforming secular into sacred and future digital cyber context of water and sacredness All chapters are based on original archival studies historical documents and field visits to the sites and buildings These examinations show water as an expression of architectural design its materiality and its spiritual values The book will be of interest to architects historians environmentalists archaeologists religious scholars and preservationists

Sacred Architecture, Its Rise, Progress, and Present State Richard Brown,1845 Seeking the Sacred in Contemporary Religious Architecture Douglas R. Hoffman,2010 A collaborative publishing venture between the Kent State University Press and Cleveland State University s Maxine Goodman Levin College of Urban Affairs Center for Sacred Landmarks The Sacred Landmarks Series includes both works of scholarship and general interest that preserve history and increase understanding of religious sites structures and organizations in Northeast Ohio in the United States and around the world This is a compelling study of what makes a sacred place sacred Modern Religious Architecture in Germany, Ireland and Beyond Lisa Godson,Kathleen James-Chakraborty,2019-03-07 Modernity and religion are not mutually exclusive Setting German and

Irish church synagogue and mosque architecture side by side over the last century highlights the place for the celebration of the new within faiths whose appeal lies in part in the stability of belief they offer across time Inspired by radically modern German churches of the 1920s and 1930s this volume offers new insights into designers of all three types of sacred buildings working at home and abroad It offers new scholarship on the unknown phenomenon of mid century ecclesiastical architecture in sub Saharan Africa by Irish designers a critical appraisal of the overlooked Frank Lloyd Wright trained Andrew Devane and an analysis of accommodating difficult pasts and challenging futures with contemporary synagogue and mosque architecture in Germany With a focus on influence and processes alongside conservationists and historians it features critical insights by the designers of some of the most celebrated contemporary sacred buildings including Niall McLaughlin who writes on his multiple award winning Bishop Edward King Chapel and Amandus Sattler architect of the innovative Herz Jesu Kirche Munich Roman Catholic Sacred Architecture in New York County Paul R. Peters,2020

Religious Architecture Oskar Verkaaik,2025-10-01 Borrowing from a range of theories on spacemaking and material religion and with contributions from anthropologists working in the United Kingdom Mali Brazil Spain and Italy this fascinating and comprehensive study develops an anthropological perspective on modern religious architecture including mosques churches and synagogues Religious Architecture examines how religious buildings take their place in opposition to their secular surroundings and in so doing function not only as community centers in urban daily life but also as evocations of the sublime that help believers to move beyond the boundaries of modern subjectivity The Hermeneutics of Sacred

Architecture Lindsay Jones,2000 The two volumes of this investigation into how we perceive sacred architecture propose an original interpretation of built environments as ritual architectural events Exploring the world s cultures and religious traditions Volume One maps out patterned responses to sacred architecture according to the human experience mechanism interpretation and comparison of architecture Volume Two an exercise in comparative morphology offers a comprehensive framework of ritual architectural priorities by looking at architecture as orientation as commemoration and as ritual context

Weaving Flesh and Blood Into Sacred Architecture Mary-Louise Totton,2002 Javanese art is an international art with strong local overtones In lieu of extant texts art historical study of the smallest units of surviving significationornamentationcan provide a wealth of information about artists and patrons It certainly reveals the unique character of this remarkable yet understudied World Heritage site The Day Star - Reading Sacred Architecture ,2008-10 New Expanded Edition Between Concept and Identity Esteban Fernández-Cobián,2014-10-02 The identity of places of worship is one of the most difficult problems faced by religious architecture at the start of this new millennium Contemporary globalising experiences demand peremptorily a reflection both conceptual and situational on the origin of objects people and institutions Nevertheless the chance of these migration flows annihilating already existing religious identities is perceived as a problem This problem is directly linked to the survival of architecture as a system carrying a material representation of the divine and constituting a self reference system for the community of believers Therefore it is important to define the extent to which the new religious architecture has given room to an abstract type of formal experimentation which is disconnected from social reality Does this architecture maintain its bridging sacramental value or on the contrary has it given way to the conceptualist trends still alive in the artistic world Is metaphor a valid concept for the Christian religion Is there an essential aspect linking this architecture to the centuries old tradition of the Catholic Church Different architectural pedagogical exhibition and formal initiatives have arisen in recent years and it is necessary to get to know them with the purpose of understanding where contemporary religious architecture is heading in its eternal search for a permanent identity

Enjoying the Tune of Expression: An Psychological Symphony within New Sacred Architecture

In a world consumed by monitors and the ceaseless chatter of instantaneous communication, the melodic beauty and mental symphony produced by the published term frequently fade in to the backdrop, eclipsed by the relentless sound and distractions that permeate our lives. But, located within the pages of New Sacred Architecture a wonderful fictional treasure filled with raw feelings, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Crafted by an outstanding musician of language, this captivating masterpiece conducts visitors on a mental journey, skillfully unraveling the concealed melodies and profound impact resonating within each carefully constructed phrase.
