Global Trends in Media Education Tony

Lavender, Birgitte Tufte, Dafna Lemish, 2003 Over the last decades Media Education has gradually obtained an educational status in many countries throughout the world although few countries have actually incorporated this subject in their formal school curricula Where Media Education is taught today it is principally carried out using a relaxed pluralistic and a cross or multidisciplinary approach This book sets out to explore this new approach to the subject via chapters that are representative of ongoing work by leading Media Education researchers in nine different countries and from all five continents Media Education is continually evolving and the individual chapters indicate that the passion for the subject is global while the actual translations of practices and policies are very much local The book expands the debate about Media Education beyond the traditions and interests of one part of the world to encompass the needs of the rest

The Urban Caribbean in an Era of Global Change Robert B. Potter, 2000

Based on the author's first hand field research this book addresses the twin processes of urbanization and globalization as they affect the contemporary Caribbean region One of the key aims of the book is to focus attention on the fact that contrary to popular perceptions the Caribbean is highly urbanized Indeed statistics show that the region is more highly urbanized than the world taken as a whole In addition the fact that the Caribbean region has always been affected by processes of globalization in respect of its economy polity and society is central to the text The chapters cover pressing topics such as urban change and the evolution of mini metropolitan regions the importance of the mercantile and plantopolis frameworks tourism post modernity and the urban nexus economic change and the dual processes of global convergence and divergence and the nature of the relationships existing between the state the informal sector housing and environmental conditions In reality it is shown that the development of tourism and enclave manufacturing is leading to new forms of urban concentration and not spatial dispersal

American Urban Politics in a Global Age Paul

Kantor, Dennis R. Judd, 2008 In this thoroughly revised reader two leading scholars bring together a collection of readings that highlight the most important trends in urban scholarship today The engaging selections incorporated into American

Urban Politics in the Global Era are arranged and presented within a clear thematic structure and with commentaries by the editors In addition to the political economy perspective emphasized in previous editions of the reader this new edition highlights the impact of globalization on urban politics and policy today The historical and contemporary readings reveal how the interaction of local national and international forces is reshaping the political landscape of urban America The Paranormal Kenneth Partridge,2009 Surveys various supernatural phenomena from ghosts and extra sensory perception ESP to UFOs and cryptozoology examining whether they have any scientific validity and why people find them so fascinating Chapter headings include Why We Believe America s Haunted Army Is There Anybody Out There and The Myth Hunters International Seminar on Urban Culture Arte-Polis ,2006 International Perspectives in Urban Studies ,1997 The Urban Challenge Larry L. Rose,C. Kirk Hadaway,1982 Forum for the Discussion of New Trends in Education ,1977 Traditional Dwellings and Settlements Review ,2007 Cognitive and Social Development Through Digital Media Construction in an Urban After-school Community Linda Charmaraman,2006 Managing Urban Tourism Stephen Page,Colin Michael Hall,2003 An holistic analysis of tourism as an urban phenomenon examining the challenge of developing harnessing and managing urban tourism The text develops concepts from outside tourism providing a basis for students to undertake research outside traditional confines Urban Land Europe ,2001 Urban Communication Timothy A. Gibson,Mark Lowes,2007 City leaders now confront a global competition for economic investment and urban elites are casting about for strategies that promise to secure a share of this future of global economic growth However many of these strategies are largely symbolic in nature City leaders for example compete for the Olympics so they can broadcast spectacular urban vistas to global television audiences Officials pour public funds into tourist amenities to cultivate an image of vitality and renewal But how are the local politics of urban redevelopment intertwined with the global politics of circulating vital urban images Urban Communication brings together scholars from communication cultural studies and urban sociology to explore the symbolic dimensions of contemporary city building drawing on case studies from around the world Gifted and Talented International ,1994
