A rich and elegant multidisciplinary collection of essays that explores the transformative potential of education science and technology in shaping Nigeria's future. The book delves into the challenges and opportunities presented by the evolving educational landscape, the critical role of science and technology in national development and strategies for bridging gaps in access, quality and innovation. It further analyzes how digital tools and platforms can revolutionize learning experiences and improve access to quality education. Most significantly, this book is laced with insightful recommendations for policymakers, educators, researchers and anyone interested in the development of Nigeria.

Prof Abubakar Sadiq HARUNA Director Institute of Africa Higher Education Research and Innovations Maryam Abacha American University of Nigeria Kano     Global Trends in Computer Technology and Their Impact on Export Control
National Research Council (U.S.). Committee to Study International Developments in Computer Science and Technology, Seymour E. Goodman, 1988. This report consists of individual assessments focusing on the supply of computer technology and how it is evolving in the United States and Coordinating Committee for Multilateral Export Control CoCom countries. It also provides an overview of the Soviet computing industry, the status of major computing technologies there and an assessment of the impact of Mikhail Gorbachev's reforms on the future of Soviet computing and the trends in the Council for Mutual Economic Assistance CMEA countries. The report examines how transfer of computer technologies can be controlled for national security purposes without retarding innovation and commercial development in the field and concludes with recommendations for the Department of State and other parties to administer a more flexible control regime.
