

The book cover features a vibrant photograph of a young girl with dark hair in a ponytail, wearing a light blue and white striped long-sleeved shirt and pink pants, walking barefoot on a sandy beach. She is carrying a small dark bag. The background shows a clear blue ocean meeting a bright blue sky with scattered white clouds. The title 'New Horizons' is prominently displayed in a large, bold, purple font within an orange oval, with 'English Today' in a smaller, white font below it. The author's name 'Parveen Khatoon' is printed in a simple black font on the right side of the cover. At the bottom, a pink banner contains the text 'an activity-based textbook'. In the bottom right corner, there is a small orange box with the word 'Book' in black and a large red number '4' below it.

Black Teachers of English(es) in Japan Gregory Paul Glasgow,2024-12-10 This book examines the pedagogical and professional experiences of a transnational group of teachers from the African continent and diaspora who made the decision to live and teach English in Japan Through a layered analytical framework it explores how these teachers struggle to negotiate their raciolinguistic identities in contexts that may prove to be professionally supportive in some cases but marginalizing in others The author contends that although multiculturalism and diversity within ELT in Japan may currently seem to be more prevalent the agency that Black teachers exercise in promoting their own cultures and language varieties may be constrained depending on the characteristics of the institutions in which they teach The issues raised in this volume will be relevant to educators administrators curriculum and materials developers and researchers committed to promoting equity racial harmony and intercultural understanding in language education Webster's New International Dictionary of the English Language, Based on the International Dictionary 1890 and 1900 William Torrey Harris,Frederic Sturges Allen,1911
