i Political and Institutional Issues of the New International Economic Order Ervin Laszlo,Joel Kurtzman,2013-10-22 Political and Institutional Issues of the New International Economic Order covers various issues concerning New International Economic Order NIEO specifically those of political and institutional in nature The book is comprised of seven chapters which are divided into two parts The first part covers topics relating to political issues in the negotiation of the NIEO while the second part concerns itself with NIEO institutional and administrative issues The text will of great interest to readers who are concerned with political and institutional aspects of the NIEO Economic Integration and Third World Development Pradip K. Ghosh,1984-10-24 Although not previously well documented many instances of regional economic integration occur among Third World countries Joint industrial planning monetary integration trade expansion and investment planning are among the many facets of economic integration discussed in this volume Integration schemes most likely to contribute to development are difficult to achieve because ultimate success depends on the willingness and ability of the nations involved to negotiate conditions that contribute to the development of the region as a whole and that assure an acceptable distribution of benefits within the region The variety of theories and practical examples of regional integration plans detailed here document the complexity of integrated planning and the difficulties in achieving the desired results. This work defines and explores the many factors necessary for understanding the difficulties involved in economic integration and cooperation among developing countries

Western Europe and the New International Economic Order

Ervin Laszlo, Joel Kurtzman, 2014-05-20 Western Europe and the New International Economic Order examines the views and positions of Western European nations regarding the New International Economic Order NIEO. The factors influencing such positions are analyzed namely economic factors on the one hand and social political and cultural factors on the other. This volume is comprised of seven chapters and begins with a brief sketch of Western Europe followed by a discussion on Western Europe's reaction to four NIEO issues the adjustment policies necessary to establish the NIEO the Law of the Sea the integrated approach to commodities and official development assistance ODA transfers. The following chapters focus on the implications of the NIEO for Western European economy social services income redistribution and social movements the policies of Scandinavia and the so called like minded countries toward developing countries and the NIEO and institutional and political factors for and against the NIEO in Western Europe. The final chapter outlines the role of Western Europe in solving the problems of the NIEO. This book will be a useful resource for economists and economic policymakers.
