Paratexts Thresholds Of Interpretation:

Paratexts Gerard Genette, 1997-03-13 Paratexts are those liminal devices and conventions both within and outside the book that form part of the complex mediation between book author publisher and reader titles forewords epigraphs and publishers jacket copy are part of a book's private and public history In this first English translation of Paratexts Gérard Genette shows how the special pragmatic status of paratextual declaration requires a carefully calibrated analysis of their illocutionary force With clarity precision and an extraordinary range of reference Paratexts constitutes an encyclopedic survey of the customs and institutions as revealed in the borderlands of the text Genette presents a global view of these liminal mediations and the logic of their relation to the reading public by studying each element as a literary function Richard Macksey's foreword describes how the poetics of paratexts interact with more general questions of literature as a cultural institution and situates Genette's work in contemporary literary theory

Sacred Thresholds: The Door to the Sanctuary in Late Antiquity Emilie M. van Opstall,2018-07-10 Sacred Thresholds The Door to the Sanctuary in Late Antiquity offers a far reaching account of boundaries within pagan and Christian sanctuaries gateways in a precinct outer doors of a temple or church inner doors of a cella The study of these liminal spaces within Late Antiquity itself a key period of transition during the spread of Christianity when cultural paradigms were redefined demands an approach that is both interdisciplinary and diachronic Emilie van Opstall brings together both upcoming and noted scholars of Greek and Latin literature and epigraphy archaeology art history philosophy and religion to discuss the experience of those who crossed from the worldly to the divine both physically and symbolically What did this passage from the profane to the sacred mean to them on a sensory emotive and intellectual level Who was excluded and who was admitted The articles each offer a unique perspective on pagan and Christian sanctuary doors in the Late Antique Mediterranean

Text, Extratext, Metatext and Paratext in Translation Valerie Pellatt,2014-01-08 This volume brings together research on a variety of paratextual and peritextual elements of translation of German Chinese and Czech source texts The explication seen as necessary to translated texts is a part of this growing field as researchers investigate the influence of writing which purports to help the reader's understanding of a text The articles included here demonstrate the impact of paratextual and peritextual elements on the way a text is produced and received Publishers both consciously and unconsciously may manipulate the presentation of a text to appeal to a certain readership while writers of prefatorial explanatory and critical material base their paratextual interpretation on their own perceptions and political leanings The articles in the volume focus on significant literary texts by writers such as Christa Wolf and Mao Zedong Regional novels of Taiwan modern and traditional poetry and children's stories are not exempt from the power of paratext and some genres such as the literary mystification texts published in the Czech Republic are purposefully designed to mislead the reader The articles in the volume help to dispel the notion that translation and the paratext which surrounds it and of which it is a part are innocent
