So what should you do to help your child process their sadness, loss and frustration in a more healthy, positive way? Explore activities like Making a scream box, Playing with clay, Feelings charades game, Making a memory bracelet, And many more. It can feel difficult to connect with your child as you process your own complicated emotions surrounding loss. Unison Parenting Cecil Taylor, 2024-09-17 Unison Parenting combines proven parenting techniques in a Christian context with a unique foundation of unison parenting strategies designed to identify and avoid pitfalls that disrupt parents from staying on the same page. The term unison parenting comes from music singing in unison, is when all voices sing the same note at the same time in order to emphasize the text. Similarly, to emphasize the message that parents want to send, they need to parent in unison. From Cecil's personal parenting experience and the experience of families with which he has been involved, parents will learn how to proactively intentionally adopt and execute strategies that balance a loving nature with firm boundaries for their child. This balance creates a warm, sure environment where the child and parent can eventually collaborate to bring the child to full, responsible adulthood. Designed for parents of school-age children who may reside in both traditional and non-traditional family structures, the first half of the book lays out parenting fundamentals for all ages. The second half focuses on the teen years.
