Purcell, 2009-10-01 In The Rhetorical Short Story Purcell examines over ninety short stories as rhetorical artifacts of nearly a century of American history The words of over seventy five authors present a pastiche of American voices from the early days of the Great War to the ongoing conflict in Iraq and Afghanistan Each of the stories features a type of rhetorical depiction that enables its audience to connect vicariously with the experience presented by the author This account sees the transformation of the American perspective from an insular one which emphasizes the purpose driven actions of strong individual agents to ones in which individuals are caught up in the inevitable consequences of an all determining stream of events      Columbia Law Review, 1929      The Musical Times, 1923      The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art, 1919      The Saturday Review, 1919      Review of Reviews for Australasia William Henry Fitchett, Henry Stead, William H.
