Report United States. Congress. House, The Politics of Furniture Fredie Floré, Cammie McAtee, 2017-02-10 In many different parts of the world modern furniture elements have served as material expressions of power in the post war era They were often meant to express an international and in some respects apolitical modern language but when placed in a sensitive setting or a meaningful architectural context they were highly capable of negotiating or manipulating ideological messages The agency of modern furniture was often less overt than that of political slogans or statements but as the chapters in this book reveal it had the potential of becoming a persuasive and malleable ally in very diverse politically charged arenas including embassies governmental ministries showrooms exhibitions design schools libraries museums and even prisons This collection of chapters examines the consolidating as well as the disrupting force of modern furniture in the global context between 1945 and the mid 1970s The volume shows that key to understanding this phenomenon is the study of the national as well as transnational systems through which it was launched promoted and received While some chapters squarely focus on individual furniture elements as vehicles communicating political and social meaning others consider the role of furniture within potent sites that demand careful negotiation whether between governments cultures or buyer and seller In doing so the book explicitly engages different scholarly fields design history history of interior architecture architectural history cultural history diplomatic and political history postcolonial studies tourism studies material culture studies furniture history and heritage and preservation studies Taken together the narratives and case studies compiled in this volume offer a better understanding of the political agency of post war modern furniture in its original historical context At the same time they will enrich current debates on reuse relocation or reproduction of some of these elements The French Law of Marriage, Marriage Contracts, and Divorce, and the Conflict of Laws Arising Therefrom Edmond Kelly, 1895 Society Recollections in Paris and Vienna, 1879-1904 George Greville Moore, 1907 Present At The Footnote Henry E. Mattox, 2010-08-03 These insightful essays editorials personal commentaries and reports on foreign affairs first appeared in the online journal American Diplomacy www.americandiplomacy.org between 1996 and 2008 As co founder and editor of that journal Henry Mattox addressed contemporary issues expressing opinions and judgments and recounting experiences drawn from his service as a career Foreign Service officer and later as a senior lecturer in American and diplomatic history The Association for Diplomatic Studies and Training has included the book in its Memoirs and Occasional Papers Series Post Report, 1985 Series of pamphlets on countries of the world revisions issued East Encounters West Fatma Muge Gocek, 1987-12-03 In 1720 an Ottoman ambassador was sent to the court of the Child King Louis XV to observe Western civilization and report on what he saw and how it could be applied in the Ottoman Empire Based on the accounts of this ambassador East Encounters West studies the impact of the West on the Ottoman empire and the impact of this Ottoman embassy on the two societies In France the presence of the embassy yielded only a brief fashion of Turquerie whereas in the Ottoman empire it yielded the first official printing press signalling an important step toward Western style G ek here assesses the reasons behind these differential impacts through three factors the Western technological advances consequent commercial expansion and the different reactions of various social groups in the Ottoman empire to these developments Her analysis reveals a far reaching and complex Westernization process that permeated Turkish society as it was approved and imported by dignitaries and eventually passed onto average households Sketching the process of Westernization from the perspective of Easterners this unique book throws new light on the cultural differences between these two major civilizations and on the nature of cultural transmission and diffusion My Diaries: 1888-1900, The scramble for Africa Wilfrid Scawen Blunt,1923 The Athenæum James Silk Buckingham,John Sterling,Frederick Denison Maurice,Henry Stebbing,Charles Wentworth Dilke,Thomas Kibble Hervey,William Hepworth Dixon,Norman Maccoll,Vernon Horace Rendall,John Middleton Murry,1897 Parliamentary Papers Great Britain.
