Parish Social Ministry Alexandra Peeler, National Conference of Catholic Charities (U.S.), 1985      Faith. Works. Wonders. Fred Kammer, 2009-09-16 Written in preparation for the 2010 centennial of the national organization Catholic Charities USA Faith Works Wonders introduces the mission scope and impact of Catholic Charities agencies in communities across the nation This book also describes the work motivation and spirituality of the three hundred thousand staff board members and volunteers in local Charities agencies this network composes the largest voluntary social service network in the country In addition the author draws on the broad experience of Catholic Charities and his long association with Charities to explain the sometimes surprising positions of the organization and its leaders in our continuing national discussions on social welfare faith inspired organizations and the appropriate roles of the private and public sectors in promoting the common good and caring for the least fortunate Within the framework of the registered slogan of Catholic Charities of the archdiocese of Washington DC the nine chapters in turn lay out Faith the mission identity and power of Catholic Charities rooted in the Scriptures experience history and Catholic thought Works the focus of agencies and people on service to people in need advocacy and empowerment for justice and compassion and convening religious and civic partners to create a better society Wonders the who what and why of volunteers the quest for quality and innovation the stance of determined pluralism in the Church community and public square and the miracle of virtue and spirituality born in the service of others Appendices provide 1 an outline of the history of Catholic Charities in the USA dating back to 1727 in the author's hometown of New Orleans and 2 the principles developed by Catholic Charities and other voluntary sector leaders for the protection of the sector in this country      Catholic Charities USA J. Bryan Hehir, 2010-08-01 In honor of Catholic Charities USA's centennial celebration this masterful work explores the development of Catholic Charities in the United States over the last one hundred years Featuring contributions by renowned Catholic scholars and respected leaders in the Catholic Charities movement this work delves into the social and demographic realities that gave rise to the National Conference of Catholic Charities in 1910 the role of parishes in the development of diocesan agencies the professionalization of social work and its impact on Catholic Charities and the effect of church state partnerships on the identity of Catholic charitable organizations This thoughtful work also explores Catholic social teaching and the theological foundation for Catholic Charities the seminal self studies that have shaped the direction of Catholic Charities since Vatican II the meaning of Catholic mission and identity in a pluralistic society the relationship between charity and justice in the work of Catholic Charities and the role of Catholic Charities in fulfilling the social mission of the church      The Church's Ministry with Families Diana S. Richmond Garland, 1990 What happened to the family America's family today isn't so simple anymore There are more stepfamilies more working mothers more single parents more day care children more aging folk living in sandwich families and fewer nuclear families The enormous changes in society call for new ways for the church to exercise its family ministries Back cover      Publishers Directory, 1994

Social Work in the Era of Devolution Rosa Perez-Koenig, Barry Rock, 2001 While economic indicators in recent years have shown an unprecedented level of prosperity social indicators tell a different story growing economic disparity increasing numbers of Americans lacking health insurance increased levels of poverty among our youngest and oldest citizens and an anti entitlement political climate that has eroded assistance to those most in need In this era of devolution the federal government has been increasingly removed from the provision of services and support to vulnerable populations This book presents a framework for understanding the impact of these developments on the practice of social work The first section focuses on contemporary social forces processes and policy changes and their implications for the social work profession The second section explores practical issues as they affect selected vulnerable populations The concluding section describes interventions that have been taking place at grass roots levels including community action and interagency collaboration Thus this book attempts to integrate policy practice organizational and community perspectives on social work practice with a commitment to social justice
