Detroit lab leak

Local authorities have launched an investigation into a mysterious fatal illness which has infected dozens of people in the city of Detroit.

A total of 313 cases have been confirmed so far, all of which are considered "severe", officials said on Wednesday.

The first cases appear to be linked to the rapper Eminem's music studio in uptown Detroit, leading to the virus being dubbed 'Shady-25'.

Those infected with the illness experience prolonged explosions of sound within the ear canal, before succumbing to the fatal head injuries.

The outbreak has prompted studios in Detroit to bring in screening processes for travellers from the city.
