Part Object Part Sculpture:

Part Object Part Sculpture Helen Anne Molesworth,2005 Part Object Part Sculpture maps a genealogy of postwar sculpture that challenges the Minimalist Post Minimalist sequence maintained in most accounts of the period Found Sculpture and Photography from Surrealism to Contemporary Art Julia Kelly,2017-07-05 Taking its departure point from the 1933 surrealist photographs of involuntary sculptures by Brassaï and Dalí Found Sculpture and Photography from Surrealism to Contemporary Art offers fresh perspectives on the sculptural object by relating it to both surrealist concerns with chance and the crucial role of photography in framing the everyday. This collection of essays questions the nature of sculptural practice looking to forms of production and reproduction that blur the boundaries between things that are made and things that are found. One of the book's central themes is the interplay of presence and absence in sculpture as it is highlighted, disrupted or multiplied through photography's indexical nature. The essays examine the surrealist three-dimensional object, its relation to and transformation through photographs as well as the enduring legacies of such concerns for the artwork's materiality and temporality in performance and conceptual practices from the 1960s through the present. Found Sculpture and Photography sheds new light on the shifts in status of the art object challenging the specificity of visual practices pursuing a radical interrogation of agency in modern and contemporary practices and exploring the boundaries between art and everyday life.

Gabriel Orozco Ann Temkin,2009 From the developer of Feminisms with Chinese Characteristics Ping Zhu,Hui Faye Xiao,2021-12-28 The year 1995 when the Fourth World Conference on Women was held in Beijing marks a historical milestone in the development of the Chinese feminist movement. In the decades that followed three distinct trends emerged: first there was a rise in feminist NGOs in mainland China and a surfacing of LGBTQ movements; second social and economic developments nurtured new female agency creating a vibrant women oriented cultural milieu in China; third in response to ethnocentric Western feminism some Chinese feminist scholars and activists recuperated the legacies of socialist China's state feminism and gender policies in a new millennium. These trends have brought Chinese women unprecedented choices, resources, opportunities, pitfalls, challenges and even crises. In this timely volume Zhu and Xiao offer an examination of the ways in which Chinese feminist ideas have developed since the mid 1990s. By juxtaposing the plural feminisms with Chinese characteristics they both underline the importance of integrating Chinese culture, history and tradition in the discussions of Chinese feminisms and stress the difference between the plethora of contemporary Chinese feminisms and the singular state feminism. The twelve chapters in this interdisciplinary collection address the theme of feminisms with Chinese characteristics from different perspectives rendered from lived experiences, historical reflections, theoretical ruminations and cultural and sociopolitical critiques painting a panoramic picture of Chinese feminisms in the age of globalization. 14 00 July Art The Politics of Collecting Eunsong Kim,2024-06-24 In The Politics of Collecting Eunsong Kim traces how racial capitalism and colonialism situated the rise of US museum collections and conceptual art forms. Investigating historical legal and property claims she argues that regimes of expropriation rather than merit or good taste are responsible for popular ideas of formal innovation and artistic genius. In doing so she details how Marcel Duchamp's canonization has more to do with his patron's donations to museums than it does the quality of Duchamp's work and uncovers the racialized and financialized logic behind the Archive of New Poetry's collecting practices. Ranging from the conception of philanthropy devised by the robber barons of the late nineteenth century to ongoing digitization projects Kim provides a new history of contemporary art that accounts for the complicated entanglement of race capital and labor behind storied art institutions and artists. Drawing on history theory and economics Kim challenges received notions of artistic success and talent and calls for a new vision of art beyond the cultural institution.

Art and knowledge after 1900 James Fox, Vid Simoniti, 2023-12-12 This ground breaking new history of modern art explores the relationship between art and knowledge from the beginning of the twentieth century to the present day. Each chapter examines artistic responses to a particular discipline of knowledge from quantum theory and theosophy to cybernetics and ethnic futurisms. The authors argue that art's incursion into other intellectual disciplines is a defining characteristic of both modernism and postmodernism. Throughout the volume poses a series of larger questions: is art a source of knowledge? If so, what kind of knowledge? And ultimately can it contribute to our understanding of the world in ways that thinkers from other fields should take seriously?

Cy Twombly's Things Kate Nesin, 2014 Cy Twombly 1928-2011 is widely acknowledged as one of the postwar period's most influential American artists yet his sculptures are little known. From 1946 onward he made hundreds of rarely exhibited found object assemblages often painted or plastered over with diverse coatings of white. Across decades Twombly thus developed a singular, strikingly consistent body of work despite the shifting status of sculpture during his lifetime. In this revelatory monograph Kate Nesin first establishes then evaluates the artist's long engagement with the historical and contemporary limits of sculpture both as medium and as word. While others have described Twombly's three dimensional works as timeless, transcendent and poetic, Nesin complicates our sense of their so-called poetry focusing on the prosaic, conspicuously material operations of these sculptural things and emphasizing the inherent difficulties as well as possibilities of the language used to characterize them. Through close readings of individual works and in-depth analyses of certain guiding concerns such as surface naming gaps and repetitions she illuminates Twombly's remarkable sculptural practice.

Arthur Dove Rachael Z. DeLue, 2016-03-16 Arthur Dove often credited as America's first abstract painter created dynamic and evocative images inspired by his surroundings from the farmland of upstate New York to the North Shore of Long Island. But his interests were not limited to nature. Challenging earlier accounts that view him as simply a landscape painter, Arthur Dove: Always Connect reveals for the first time the artist's intense engagement with language, the nature of social interaction and scientific and technological advances Rachael Z DeLue rejects the traditional assumption that Dove can only be understood in terms of his nature paintings and association with photographer and gallerist Alfred Stieglitz and his circle Instead she uncovers deep and complex connections between Dove s work and his world including avant garde literature popular music meteorology mathematics aviation and World War II Arthur Dove also offers the first sustained account of Dove s Dadaesque multimedia projects and the first explorations of his animal imagery and the role of humor in his art Beautifully illustrated with works from all periods of Dove s career this book presents a new vision of one of America s most innovative and captivating artists and reimagines how the story of modern art in the United States might be told General Catalogue of Sculpture, Paintings and Other Objects, February, 1907 Art Institute of Chicago,1907 The Object Antony Hudek,2014 Discussions of the object as a key to understanding central aspects of modern and contemporary art Artists increasingly refer to post object based work while theorists engage with material artifacts in culture A focus on object based learning treats objects as vectors for dialogue across disciplines Virtual imaging enables the object to be abstracted or circumvented while immaterial forms of labor challenge materialist theories This anthology surveys such reappraisals of what constitutes the objectness of production with art as its focus Among the topics it examines are the relation of the object to subjectivity distinctions between objects and things the significance of the object s transition from inert mass to tool or artifact and the meanings of the everyday in the found object repetition in the replicated or multiple object loss in the absent object and abjection in the formless or degraded object It also explores artistic positions that are anti object theories of the experimental liminal or mental object and the role of objects in performance The object becomes a prism through which to reread contemporary art and better understand its recent past Artists surveyed include Georges Ad agbo Art in Ruins Iain Baxter Louise Bourgeois Pavel B chler Lygia Clark Claude Closky Brian Collier Jimmie Durham Fischli Weiss Luca Frei Meschac Gaba Isa Genzken Gruppe Geflecht Eva Hesse Mike Kelley John Latham Antje Majewski Gustav Metzger Cady Noland Gabriel Orozco Adrian Piper Falke Pisano Eva Rothschild Aura Satz Kenneth Snelson Hito Steyerl Josef Strau Alina Szapocznikow Jo lle Tuerlinckx Erwin Wurm Writers include Homi K Bhabha Jack Burnham Ewa Lajer Burcharth Lynne Cooke Gillo Dorfles Jean Fisher Ferreira Gullar Charles Harrison Paulo Herkenhoff Julia Kristeva Bruno Latour Bracha Lichtenberg Ettinger Jean Fran ois Lyotard Lev Manovich Ursula Meyer Bruno Munari Georges Perec Hans J rg Rheinberger Dieter Roelstraete Howard Singerman Nancy Spector Marcus Steinweg Anne Wagner G rard Wajcman Slavoj Zizek The Uncertainty of Objects and Ideas Anne Ellegood,Johanna Burton,Hirshhorn Museum and Sculpture Garden,2006 This book emphasizes the physical interpretation of mathematical solutions and introduces applied mathematics while presenting differential equations Coverage includes Fourier series orthogonal functions boundary value problems Green s functions and transform methods This text is ideal for readers interested in science engineering and applied mathematics The Sculptures of Santa Lucia Cosumalhuapa in Guatemala Simeon Habel,1878 The Ceramic Design Book Chris Rich,1998 This book is a
