Part Time Paradox Connecting Gender Work And Family:

Part-time Paradox Ann Duffy, Norene Pupo, 1992 The dramatic expansion of part time employment may revolutionize not only the nature of work but also the connection between work and gender This book is intended as a detailed accessible introduction to the paradox of part time work and to power The authors develop both a macro and micro perspective and explore both theoretical and empirical analyses of the issue Part time work is located in terms of the general history of women s employment and national as well as international profiles are provided The complexities and contradictions of women s employment and national as well as international profiles are provided Working in a Global Era Vivian Shalla, 2011-10-03 Now in its second edition this reader presents a critical examination of the changing structure of work in Canada and abroad Its focus is on the role of Canadian labour in the globalized world Contributors include David Livingstone Pat Armstrong Meg Luxton Dave Broad and other prominent Canadian scholars Each of the seven themed sections begins with a contextual introduction by Vivian Shalla and concludes with critical thinking questions and suggestions for further reading New to this edition All new content 14 up to date chapters reflecting the current state of research on work in Canada New section on informal care work More workplace based chapters that provide a view from the shop floor Changing Women, Changing History Diana Lynn Pedersen, 1996 Changing Women Changing History is a bibliographic guide to the scholarship both English and French on Canadian s women s history Organized under broad subject headings and accompanied by author and subject indices it is accessible and comprehensive Work in Tumultuous Times Vivian Shalla, Wallace Clement, 2007-03-12 Using a progressive approach to political economy contributors propose alternative policies and practices that might secure more decent livelihoods for workers and their families Roadblocks to Equality Jeffery Klaehn, 2009 Explores women s experiences within contemporary society in a domestic and global context Labour Market Changes and Job Insecurity Jane E. Ferrie, 1999 This work is the result of a symposium focusing on the anxieties that arise from changes in the world of work in Europe The book seeks to draw attention to the changing nature of work trends in labour market policies and the increase in job insecurity which creates chronic unemployment

Underemployment Douglas C. Maynard, Daniel C. Feldman, 2011-05-26 Underemployment when people are employed in some way that is insufficient such as being overqualified or working part time when one desires full time employment is a challenge faced by all industrialized nations and their organizations and individuals Just like unemployment some level of underemployment exists even in the best of times but it becomes more pervasive when the job market is weak Given the current economic climate in North America and abroad researchers and scholars in various disciplines psychology business sociology economics are becoming more interested in investigating the effects of underemployment and identifying possible practical solutions Underemployment synthesizes the current understanding of the phenomenon by bringing together scholars with diverse perspectives and expertise with the aim of informing and guiding the next generation of underemployment research Work and Family Nancy Arbuckle,A. Marie McNaughton,BC Council for Families,1999

Sociology of Family Life David Cheal,2020-06-03 This lucid and accessible introductory text from a highly regarded author provides students who are encountering the sociology of the family for the first time with a systematic and stimulating way of thinking about the subject based on a core set of analytical questions Coherent and persuasive it blends theory with empirical examples drawn from all over the world thus offering valuable insights into the differences and commonalities between families in quite diverse social and cultural contexts Work in Canada Graham S. Lowe,1993 Women in the Office Ann Eyerman,2000 Secretaries administrative assistants clerks word processors and telemarketers make up a sector of the working world whose voice is rarely heard In this timely and insightful investigative analysis Ann Eyerman places these women front and centre She brings to our attention just how important office work is to the functioning of our economy and how restructuring under the global economy is causing dramatic shifts in the office environment Is a full time job a thing of the past How is downsizing affecting women working in insurance banking law and education Are the new technologies making their lives easier or have they created greater responsibilities longer hours and higher stress levels In Women in the Office Ann Eyerman takes these questions to the women in the field Contributing her own story along with candid conversations of eleven office workers Eyerman brings to the fore the concerns women face in their drastically shifting workplaces these narratives are framed by a sharp and concise explanation of the social and political shifts behind these transitions Yet despite these setbacks Eyerman demonstrates the resourcefulness of women She uncovers the strategies women are developing to preserve their working culture their sense of self and their economic well being in a time of global change Constructing Identities as "working Mothers" Anita Iltis Garey,1993 Crime and Culture L. A.

Visano,1998 Crime and Culture is a pathbreaking work in the critical study of crime and criminology In this book Livy Visano begins with an overview of the standard perspectives on crime and delinquency In the clear style that Dr Visano's readers and students appreciate he shows how we have come to understand crime in the conventional terms of rules and rule breaking But who makes the rules Where do our ideas about crime come from During his more than two decades of teaching and research in the fields of crime and delinquency Livy Visano has come to understand how power influences culture and culture produces ideologies about crime Dr Visano asks the reader to step back from the conventional view in order to see the underlying structures of political economy that have created them Readers of this outstanding book are challenged on almost every page to rethink their views about crime They will finish the work with ideas much modified from those with which they started Australasian Political Studies 1997 Australasian Political Studies Association. Conference,1997

Fractured Transitions from School to Work Julian Tanner,H. Krahn,Timothy F. Hartnagel,1995 Why do so many high school students drop out and what are the consequences for the students their families and society in general This work discusses answers to these questions and examines topics dealing with the issues policies and problems associated with leaving school early It looks at the reasons behind the decision to drop out the labor market difficulties that dropouts face the psychological experience of unemployment the relationship between dropouts and various kinds of deviance and the dropouts own expectations about their futures The Tyranny of Work James W. Rinehart,1996 Taking it Off, Putting it on Chris Bruckert,2002 Taking It Off Putting It On is an interesting mix of formal sociological analysis and feminist theory grounded in the voices of female strippers This book is a carefully studied theoretical walk through women and work The author interviews female strippers to reveal the core of the world of the professional stripper Bruckert contends that the audience's reading of the stripper's sexualized form does not erase her authorship she is able to put on the audience while she is taking it her clothes off Bruckert was herself a stripper and writes of feeling objectified by the usual feminist analysis of strippers These feelings were the catalyst for her interest in women and work She uses her intimate knowledge of the world of the stripper to journey to the heart and soul of the industry and allow the voice of the stripper to emerge as the subject in an experience in which she is usually objectified Doing IT Krista Scott-Dixon,2004 From the boom of the 1990s to the bust of early 2000 women have been carving out careers in information technology For these IT workers it is not just about earning a living but about applying their technological scientific and engineering skills and knowledge Doing IT demonstrates that women fill a wide variety of these technological occupations yet continue to face barriers preventing them from reaching their full professional potential Scott Dixon examines the IT environment's traditional workplace that keeps gender race class ability and pay inequities firmly in place Drawing on personal interviews she shows that despite these barriers women in IT bring passion to their jobs and draw on their wit intelligence and creative resourcefulness to shape their career paths Doing IT is an invigorating conversation among women in search of greater employment opportunities Feminist Studies ,1993 Seeing Ourselves : Classic, Contemporary, and Cross-cultural Readings in Sociology Nijole Vaicaitis Benokraitis,John J. Macionis,Bruce Ravelli,2006-03
