Partial Knowledge Paul W. Gooch,1987

Paul and Religion Paul W. Gooch,2022-03-17

Explores the continuing and contemporary relevance of the most important and most controversial figure of early Christianity

Mission and Moral Reflection in Paul Michael D. Barram,2006 The Apostle Paul sought to exert his influence and authority over the congregations he founded long after they had been established Such ongoing oversight by Christianity s prototypical evangelist has not been adequately understood In a brief 1987 article W Paul Bowers challenged John Knox s assertion that Paul s pastoral and administrative work irked him and that he wanted to be free of it This book confirms and significantly develops Bowers s little known thesis examining a wide range of passages in the apostle s undisputed letters and highlighting crucial implications of Paul s broadly conceived vocation for understanding his mission and moral reflection

Constructing the Self Valérie Nicolet-Anderson,2012 Using some of the works of Michel Foucault 1926 1984 as a conversation partner Valerie Nicolet Anderson focuses on the manner in which Paul constructs the identity of his audience in his letter to the Romans In particular she analyzes how the notions of autonomy and self agency function for both authors In this dialogue Valerie Nicolet Anderson examines whether Paul can still play a relevant part in contemporary discussions around the notion of identity The approach to Paul presents a narrative reading of Romans and displays an interdisciplinary hermeneutics which brings together New Testament exegesis and post modern philosophy The author constructs a dynamic picture of Paul as engaged in the shaping of the ethos of his communities through various strategies She highlights Paul s actuality reflecting the current use of Paul by continental philosophers and invites more interdisciplinary reflection between exegesis and philosophy

Paul's True Rhetoric Mark Douglas Given,2001-01-01 Given argues that Paul s rhetorical strategies in Acts and in his letters display intentional ambiguity cunning and deception and make vulnerable to the charge that he perpetrates sophistries

Transforming Philosophy and Religion Norman Wirzba,Bruce Ellis Benson,2008-05-07

Norman Wirzba Bruce Ellis Benson and an international group of philosophers and theologians describe how various expressions of philosophy are transformed by the discipline of love What is at stake is how philosophy colors and shapes the way we receive and engage each other our world and God Focusing primarily on the Continental tradition of philosophy of religion the work presented in this volume engages thinkers such as St Paul Meister Eckhart Kierkegaard Husserl Heidegger Ricoeur Derrida Marion Zizek Irigaray and Michele Le Doeuff Emerging from the book is a complex definition of the wisdom of love which challenges how we think about nature social justice faith gender creation medicine politics and ethics

Paul's Way of Knowing Ian W. Scott, 2008-12 Dirty Words in Deadwood showcases literary analyses of the Deadwood television series by leading western American literary critics Whereas previous reaction to the series has largely addressed the question of historical accuracy rather than intertextuality or literary complexity Melody Graulich and Nicolas S Witschi's edited volume brings a much needed perspective to Deadwood's representation of the frontier West As Graulich observes in her introduction With its emotional coherence compelling characterizations compressed structural brilliance moral ambiguity language experiments interpretation of the past relevance to the present and engagement with its literary forebears Deadwood is an aesthetic triumph as historical fiction and like much great literature makes a case for the humanistic value of storytelling From previously unpublished interviews with series creator David Milch to explorations of sexuality disability cinematic technique and western narrative this collection focuses on Deadwood as a series ultimately about the imagination as a verbal and visual construct and as a literary masterpiece that richly rewards close analysis and interpretation

Encounter ,1988    Who's who in Biblical Studies and Archaeology Biblical Archaeology Society,1993    Paul, the Fool of Christ L. L. Welborn,2005 Welborn argues that Paul's acceptance of the role of a fool and his evaluation of the message of the cross as foolishness are best understood against the background of the popular theatre and the fool's role in the mime Welborn's investigation demonstrates that the term folly moria was generally understood as a designation of the attitude and behaviour of a particular social type the lower class buffoon As a source of amusement these lower class types were widely represented on the stage in the vulgar and realistic comedy known as the mime Paul's acceptance of the role of the fool mirrors the strategy of a number of intellectuals in the early Empire who exploited the paradoxical freedom that the role permitted for the utterance of a dangerous truth    Who's who in Biblical Studies and Archaeology ,1993    Paul and

Religion Paul W. Gooch,2022-03-17 Paul and Religion demonstrates the continuing and contemporary relevance of the most important and most controversial figure of early Christianity Paul Gooch interrogates the Pauline writings for their meaning as well as implications for religion as an entire form of life a stance on the world expressed in distinctive practices Bringing a philosophical approach to this topic he connects Paul's ideas to lived experience In a conversational style Gooch explores Paul's experience of grace and his dismissal of distinctive markers of religious identity in favour of love as binding together a community Contrary to common expectations he finds within Paul's letters material for conversations about issues in our day such as gender and sexuality From his close reading of the Letters Gooch argues that the Pauline religious form of life is not identical with institutional Christianity Indeed his conclusions may be welcome to those who belong to other faiths

discussions the authors examine topics of religious experience faith and reason theistic arguments the problem of evil religious language miracles life after death and much more The volume is enhanced by study questions and suggestions for further reading The book also may serve as a companion to the authors 1996 anthology PHILOSOPHY OF RELIGION

Toronto Journal of Theology ,1989    Faith in Theory and Practice Elizabeth S. Radcliffe,Elizabeth Schmidt Radcliffe,Carol J. White,1993 Two views of theistic faith are presented in this book Some contributors see faith as a set of beliefs about God and seek substantiation for those beliefs Others perceive faith less as a set of beliefs than as a special way of living in relationship to God The connection between these two views is an intriguing theme winding through the collection and explicitly addressed by Michael A Brown in the closing essay    Christian Eschatology and the Physical Universe David Wilkinson,2010-07-29 Does matter matter The scientific picture of the end of the physical Universe has undergone dramatic changes since the turn of the 21st century with its future characterized by accelerated expansion and futility Yet Christian theology has been largely silent on this despite the interest in eschatology in popular culture and in theology itself What can Christian theology learn from and contribute to the scientific picture of the future of the Universe Can the biblical narratives of creation and new creation have a fruitful dialogue with scientific discoveries David Wilkinson shows what a fruitful dialogue this can be Critiquing the folk eschatology of the Left Behind series the misguided faith of the scientific optimists and the lack of scientific engagement of the theologians of hope Wilkinson argues for a rediscovery of the theological theme of new creation and the centrality of bodily resurrection    Pauline Theology: 1 & 2 Corinthians Jouette M. Bassler,1991
