Being God's Partner Rabbi Jeffrey K. Salkin,2013-04-03 What is spirituality anyway Isn't spirituality about emotion And isn't work about the rational mind Too often we divorce our work life from our real life from our innermost beliefs and convictions But work can be as much a part of our life and as much a vehicle for spiritual growth and personal understanding as going to synagogue or church on Saturday or Sunday or taking a walk in the woods or reading quietly to our kids at bedtime In fact work may be among the most potent vehicles for fulfilling our spiritual life because for many of us it presents the best opportunities to meld community and social and economic productivity with personal belief and individual talent from the Introduction by Norman Lear Being God's Partner will help people of every faith reconcile the cares of their work and the strivings of their souls and restore the hidden link between them By exploding our assumptions that work and spirituality are irreconcilable Salkin explores how spirituality can enhance our 9 to 5 lives It is time to be as rich internally as we are externally he writes offering soul stirring ways to smuggle religion into our workplace Thought provoking practical and exhilarating Being God's Partner goes beyond just talking about the subject to give you specific actions to take and connections to make right now to help infuse our lives with greater meaning purpose and satisfaction and invigorate all that we do

A More Christlike God Bradley Jersak, 2015-09-01 Whether our notions of god are personal projections or inherited traditions author and theologian Brad Jersak proposes a radical reassessment arguing for A More Christlike God a More Beautiful Gospel If Christ is the image of the invisible God the radiance of God's glory and exact representation of God's likeness what if we conceived of God as completely Christlike the perfect Incarnation of self giving radically forgiving co suffering love What if God has always been and forever will be cruciform cross shaped in his character and actions A More Christlike God suggests that such a God would be very good news indeed a God who Jesus unwrathed from dead religion a Love that is always toward us and a Grace that pours into this suffering world through willing human partners
