Therapist's Guide to Child Development Dee C. Ray, 2025-09-15 A Therapist's Guide to Child Development gives therapists and counselors the basics they need to understand their clients in the context of development and to explain development to parents. The chapters take the reader through the various physical, social, and identity developments occurring at each age, explaining how each stage of development is closely linked to mental health and how that is revealed in therapy. This ideal guide for students as well as early and experienced professionals will also give readers the tools to communicate successfully with the child's caregivers or teachers, including easy-to-read handouts that detail what kind of behaviors are not cause for concern and which behaviors mean it's time to seek help. In the new edition, each chapter also includes new sections on brain development and cultural identity development, as well as updates on child development in the age of technology. As an aid to practitioners, this book matches developmental ages with appropriate evidence-based mental health interventions.

The Wounded Parent Guy Greenfield, 2002 Many Christian parents, although active in their churches, are crying for help because they cannot understand or cope with their wayward children. Counselor and author Guy Greenfield has discovered and dealt with many wounded parents who are searching for guidelines to come to terms with themselves and their children. In this revision of his classic work, Greenfield offers hope and practical guidance for parents who feel abandoned by God because their children have not turned out as they had planned. The Wounded Parent provides both immediate and long range help for parents whose children have rejected the spiritual values of their parents by choosing a value system and behavior pattern outside the evangelical tradition. This book also helps parents to rebuild the channels of communication with their children and to construct new relationships with them. Guy Greenfield is Director of Panhandle Pastoral Counseling Ministry in Amarillo, Texas. A former pastor and professor, Dr. Greenfield is the father of a daughter and two sons. A graduate of Oklahoma Baptist University, B.A., Texas Tech University, M.A., and Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, M.Div., Ph.D., Dr. Greenfield has authored five other books, including The Wounded Minister and Re-Igniting Love and Passion. He is a member of the American Association of Pastoral Counselors and the American Association of Christian Counselors.
