Paris Pocket Guide 2025 Morgan Ashton, 2025-06-25

Ever dreamed of strolling through Paris like a local, confident, unhurried and knowing exactly where to go and what to avoid? Whether you're sipping espresso beneath striped awnings or catching your breath at the top of Montmartre, Paris Pocket Guide 2025 is your shortcut to the Paris you've always imagined and the one few tourists ever get to know. Let's be honest: Planning a trip to Paris can feel overwhelming. Endless blogs, outdated travel books and glossy influencer reels show you more fluff than function. You land in the city of lights only to waste hours in lines, overpay at tourist traps or miss out on hidden gems simply because no one told you about them. It's easy to feel lost in the crowds, unsure if you're really experiencing Paris or just skimming the surface. This guide changes all of that. Written with a traveler's intuition and a local's familiarity, this updated 2025 edition slips into your bag or jacket pocket and becomes your most trusted travel companion. Every arrondissement, every recommendation, every shortcut carefully chosen to help you experience the city with ease, wonder and joy. This book is not filled with generic travel content recycled from a decade ago. It's the product of fresh, on-the-ground research from spring 2025, real experiences, current prices, opening times and neighborhood insights gathered step by step through Paris's streets. Whether it's your first visit or your fifth, this book respects your time and helps you avoid the outdated and the overrated. But it's not just about ticking off major sights; it's about finding that unmarked bistro where the chef still handwrites the menu or that riverside bench where you'll linger for
