Barefoot in Paris

Ina Garten, 2004-10-26. Hearty boeuf Bourguignon served in deep bowls over a garlic rubbed slice of baguette toast, decadently rich croque monsieur, egg and oozing with cheese, gossamer crème brûlée, its sweetness offset by a brittle burnt sugar topping. Whether shared in a cozy French bistro or in your own home, the romance and enduring appeal of French country cooking is irrefutable. Here is the book that helps you bring that spirit, those evocative dishes into your own home. What Ina Garten is known for on her Food Network show and in her three previous bestselling books is adding a special twist to familiar dishes while also streamlining the recipes so you spend less time in the kitchen but still emerge with perfection. And that's exactly what she offers in Barefoot in Paris. Ina's kir royale includes the unique addition of raspberry liqueur, a refreshing alternative to the traditional crème de cassis. Her vichyssoise is brightened with the addition of zucchini and her chocolate mousse is deeply flavored with the essence of orange. All of these dishes are true to their Parisian roots but all offer something special and are thoroughly delicious, completely accessible and the perfect fare for friends and family. Barefoot in Paris is suffused with Ina's love of the city, of the bustling outdoor markets and alluring little shops of the bakeries and fromageries and charcuteries of the wonderful celebration of food that you find on every street corner in every neighborhood. So take a trip to Paris with the perfect guide, the Barefoot Contessa herself, in her most personal book yet.
