Parlando Ray Clark Dickson,2000-07-01　　Parlando II Ray Clark Dickson,2014-06-25 Most of RCD s formal energy derives from the brilliant jazz blown waves of participial phrasing Over and over again a prepositional phrase is risen out of stasis by gerund In the clickety click ching of his lines he delivers the adrenalinic music of the centurys explorers who went off for story and returned with poems then went off again Dickson s poems insist that searched well the world has many astonishing and sustaining beauties human aural kinetic And the poems also insist that the inquisitive fraternal drive toward the next day is probably the world s most alluring beauty To open these pages is to begin that drive From Parlando Kerouac Connection Press Menlo Park CA July 2000 Kevin Clark Ph D Essayist Critic Poet Professor of English Cal Poly San Luis Obispo CA Ray Clark Dickson is father of the new West Coast poetry sings like Blake burns like Bukowski RCD does blue collar and white collar poetry in the same laundry He follows readings here by Derek Walcott and Norman Mailer D G Wills D G Wills Books La Jolla California　　Selected Poetry of Andrea Zanzotto Andrea Zanzotto,2015-03-08 Born in Pieve di Soligo Treviso in 1921 Andrea Zanzotto is the author of five books of poetry a number of critical essays and a book of prose His work has been described as innovative intellectual and elegant The distinguished translators of this volume Ruth Feldman and Brian Swann have selected poems from Zanzotto s published work providing English translations that appear on pages facing the Italian text Originally published in 1976 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905　　Selected Poems Giacomo Leopardi,2003　　Underseas Possessions; Selected Poems Hans-Jürgen Heise,1972　　Selected Poems 1953-1973 Hugo Claus,1986　　HOLDERLIN AND MORKIKE SELECTED POEMS ,1972　　What'll We Do with this Life? Karl Krolow,1993 Karl Krolow considered by many the dean of contemporary German poets has had a rich and varied career as a prose writer essayist and translator as well He is the author of more than thirty volumes of poetry each with a life and mind of its own This selection aims to be as representative as possible of the four major decades of his life as a poet In the forty years that What ll We Do With This Life covers Krolow ranges across many subjects and themes all the while absorbing and articulating them by means of a lyric voice or on occasion voices that is at once abstract and detached but so concentrated and focused that what is observed and communicated becomes intimate almost voyeuristic accounts of our private lives which turn out to be the sum and substance of our public lives as well In poems Krolow calls half open doors he heightens our readiness to respond to life s exigencies to which we are not quite privy but which affect our lives deeply His basic stylistic mode part of the century s parlando tradition issues from a deep private center that wishes to connect if only briefly

often with one other human at a time The paradox is that the more detached the poems seem the more intimately the reader is affected caught exposed in the blaze of the imagined moment Krolow puts it this way Poems are for those waiting for lightning Krolow also observes that in trying to make the poem of almost nothing he perhaps stands a chance of having it be about everything he is fond of quoting Flaubert in this regard who most wanted to write a book about nothing But even as Krolow s embarrassed I tries to escape our direct attention we reach through the poem and its relation to our own internal monologues human images that connect us all Today approaching eighty and not in the best health Krolow remains poetically and politically involved taking a lively interest in the emergence of a united Germany with all the challenges that presupposes As a critic a reader a judge of literary competitions and as president of The Germany Academy of Language and Literature 1972 75 he has been generous in his ways with the talents of others doing much to ensure that we will leave literary descendants Almost no living German writer and many another writer beyond the borders of Germany has been without Krolow s direct or indirect support   A Study of Selected Choral Settings of Walt Whitman Poems Lou Stem Mize,1979
