Participating Knowledge Society:

Participating in the Knowledge Society R. Finnegan, 2005-09-27 In current debates about the knowledge society and the organization of research the spotlight is most often on the universities This interdisciplinary and transhistorical volume focuses on the less often recognized work of independent researchers creating and participating in knowledge outside the academy from seventeenth century north country astronomers to Victorian naturalists to today's think tanks community historians and new forms of researching and publishing through the internet These intriguing cases raise challenging issues about the location definition and validation of research about active participation in knowledge generation and about the perhaps changing boundaries of university today Construction of knowledge, society and territory Gallego Falla, Stefania Martínez-Santa, Jefferson Gutiérrez Giraldo, Martha Cecilia Franco Ossa, Carolina Puentes Castro, Miguel Ángel Bedoya, Olga Lucía Cediel Gómez, Yulia Katherine, 2023-12-30

We are pleased to present to our readers the community in general and our academic community a book that arises as a result of the second working day of Social Appropriation of Knowledge of the Faculty of Education Sciences with the Vice Rector's Office for Research Innovation and Extension which allowed for the socialization and subsequent publication of this book Initially we found the text called Perspectives on participation in the learning of Embera Cham students from the Kurmad Indigenous Reservation a study on Primary Education and Basic Education authored by Stefanía Gallego Falla and Jefferson Martínez Santa The research was carried out at the Manos Unidas Educational Institution in the city of Pereira which is attended by Embera children from the Kurmand indigenous reservation who come from different Embera communities in the Department of Risaralda In the institution there is a high convergence of communities and mestizo population which makes it intercultural But there is a problem and that is that the school does not adapt to the traditions Visioning and Engineering the Knowledge Society - A Web Science Perspective Miltiadis D.
