On Cats Doris Lessing,2002

Doris Lessing s love affair with cats began at a young age when she became intrigued with the semi feral creatures on the African farm where she grew up Her fascination remained undiminished by the handsome domesticated creatures who shared her flats and her life in London and grew into real love with El Magnifico the awkwardly lovable cat who in his later years suffered the great indignity of becoming a three legged beast Consisting of Doris Lessing s collection of stories Particularly Cats and Rufus and the poignant memoir The Old Age of El Magnifico this book evokes a sense of feline existence

The Cat and the Human Imagination Katharine M. Rogers,2001-03-28 An intelligent amusing and affectionate look at cats in history literature and art

Alfred and Emily Doris Lessing,2009-10-13 I think my father s rage at the trenches took me over when I was very young and has never left me Do children feel their parents emotions Yes we do and it is a legacy I could have done without What is the use of it It is as if that old war is in my own memory my own consciousness In this extraordinary book the 2007 Nobel Laureate Doris Lessing explores the lives of her parents each irrevocably damaged by the Great War Her father wanted the simple life of an English farmer but shrapnel almost killed him in the trenches and thereafter he had to wear a wooden leg Her mother Emily spent the war nursing the wounded in the Royal Free Hospital after her great love a doctor drowned in the Channel In the fictional first half of Alfred and Emily Doris Lessing imagines the happier lives her parents might have made for themselves had there been no war a story that begins with their meeting at a village cricket match outside Colchester This is followed by a piercing examination of their relationship as it actually was in the shadow of the Great War of the family s move to Africa and of the impact of her parents marriage on a young woman growing up in a strange land Here I still am says Doris Lessing trying to get out from under that monstrous legacy trying to get free Triumphant with the publication of Alfred and Emily she has done just that humorous anecdotes of history's most notable cat loving writers Inspired by Cats represents both cat enthusiasts and literature lovers in full color The Real Thing Doris Lessing, 2010-10-19 Doris Lessing has a powerful voice and a particular one. It speaks in anger at the distortion of personal relations in an unsound society but speaks it with a wit that manages to be both pitiless and compassionate. Richard Eder Los Angeles Times The stories and sketches in this collection penetrate to the heart of human experience with the passion and intelligence readers have come to expect of Doris Lessing. Most of the pieces are set in contemporary London a city the author loves for its variety its diversity the way it connects the life of animals and birds in the parks to the streets. Lessing's fiction also explores the darker corners of relationships between women and men as in the rich and emotionally complex title story in which she uncovers a more parlous reality behind the facade of the most conventional relationship between the sexes The Grandmothers Doris Lessing, 2009-10-13 Shocking intimate often uncomfortably honest these stories reaffirm Doris Lessing's unequalled ability to capture the truth of the human condition. In the title novel two friends fall in love with each other's teenage sons and these passions last for years until the women end them vowing a respectable old age. In Victoria and the Staveneys a young woman gives birth to a child of mixed race and struggles with feelings of estrangement as her daughter gets drawn into a world of white privilege. The Reason for It traces the birth faltering and decline of an ancient culture with enlightening modern resonances. A Love Child features a World War II soldier who believes he has fathered a love child during a fleeting wartime romance and cannot be convinced otherwise.

The Summer Before the Dark Doris Lessing, 2010-11-17 As the summer begins Kate Brown attractive intelligent forty five happily enough married with a house in the London suburbs and three grown children has no reason to expect anything will change. But when the summer ends the woman she was living behind a protective camouflage of feminine charm and caring no longer exists. This novel Doris Lessing's brilliant excursion into the terrifying stretch of time between youth and old age is her journey from London to Turkey to Spain from husband to lover to madness on the road to a frightening new independence and a confrontation with self that lets her finally come truly of age The Nine Emotional Lives of Cats

Jeffrey Moussaieff Masson, 2002-10-29 In the hugely popular New York Times bestseller Dogs Never Lie About Love provocative psychoanalyst Jeffrey Moussaieff Masson brilliantly navigated the inner landscape of man's best friend. Now he delves deep into the secretive playful world of cats revealing emotions debunking myths and honoring the feline's evolution from solitary jungle creature to human companion. Drawing from literature history animal behavioral research and the wonderful true stories of cat experts and cat lovers around the world Jeffrey Masson vividly explores the delights and mysteries of the feline heart. But at the core of this remarkable book are Masson's candid often amusing observations of his own five cats. Their mischievousness aloofness and affection provide a way to examine emotions from contentment to jealousy from anger to love. Consider the question Are cats selfish. While human egocentricity is defined by how little a person cares about others the cat's narcissism is not like that at all. Cats may appear self centered but they watch us all the time taking us in They see us they notice us a far cry from vanity Cats are curious a trait that rarely kills them On the contrary it gives them the chance to assess in their own idiosyncratic way whether we are worthy of their attention Cats are happy to be themselves What they think of us is a different question entirely We need cats to need us notes Masson It unnerves us that they do not However if they do not need us they nonetheless seem to love us The Nine Emotional Lives of Cats will captivate readers with its surprises and insights offering a new perspective on the deep connection shared by humans and their feline friends This is the book that Masson s many fans and cat lovers everywhere have been waiting for The New Beacon Book of Quotations by Women Rosalie Maggio,1996 Beacon Book of Quotations by Women brings the best of women s words from biblical times to the present to today s readers writers and speakers
