Fabio Mauri. Ideology and Memory Fabio Mauri,2012-05-24T00:00:00+02:00 The occasions and pretexts in which Fabio Mauri operated a verbal space were mostly conferences those instances of confrontation with an audience that listens and asks questions Almost all the Mauri's texts have already been published but this is a unique opportunity to focus on them not only from the viewpoint of their expressive value or formal structure but also of the way the texts themselves came into being in short an opportunity to see Fabio Mauri's conferences as performances as articulation specification diversion Each of his texts develops not as a discourse but as a pretext that hovers around the limits of text Each text seems to document a break an action loaded with risk a disappearance At the core of Beckett's poetics lies the terrible question posed by Nietzsche Who is speaking which in Beckett becomes Who cares who's speaking did anyone say who cares who's speaking Similarly for Fabio Mauri the conference the text the verbal encounter is a prolongation of obscurity which is gradually dispelled to reveal the word as a transitory locus of uncertain expectations The discourse is often used as a disappropriation a distance a negation The relationship with the audience is for Mauri a sort of surgical operation in which words are precision instruments kept in one's pocket contained in gestures mingled with the smoke from a cigarette Almost all the texts are of formidable density with words that acquire a rare potency the word becomes matter History doesn t offer much hope but it seems that there is still some to be found in dialectics or in art in ethics and aesthetics Francesca Alfano Miglietti A Map of Making Dances Stuart Hodes,1998 This all inclusive guide to the art of creating dance moves and routines written by the advisor and former dancer of the Martha Graham School and company contains 247 projects that guide the user through a myriad of topics Concepts and techniques such as form sequencing variation surrealism abstract movement improvisation ritual and ceremony space and floor patterns are examined and explained encouraging the student to experiment and create with movement Growing Artists Joan Bouza Koster,2001 This well organized readable text provides the tools to develop rich meaningful activities that integrate art into the total educational experience for young children It specifically focuses on developmentally appropriate teaching practices best suited for use with children ages 1 1 2 through 8 Multiple intelligences theory the Reggio Emilia experience artistic development the creative process thematic teaching and the project approach form the framework for designing safe open ended art experiences that develop the child s ability to look at talk about and create art This text is designed for both those preparing to enter the early childhood fields as well as those who wish to incorporate art more fully into their early childhood programs Collage; Personalities, Concepts, Techniques Harriet Janis,Rudi Blesh,1962 Collage: Personalities, Concepts [and] Techniques Harriet Grossman Janis,Rudi Blesh,1967 Making Collage Isabel Thomas,2005 Learn all about making collage and what is involved in creating art This exciting title is filled with color photos and tons of information Writing and Grammar: Communication in Action Pearson/Prentice Hall, Joyce Armstrong Carroll,2004 The Arts Framework, P-10 Victoria.
