Making Democracy Safe for Oil Christopher T. Rand, 1975      The Limits of Performativity Franck Cochoy, Martin Giraudeau, Liz McFall, 2015-12-22 The economy is commonly described either as the apolitical realm of calculation or as the fully political one of domination This book scrutinizes the ways in which the economy is performed in order to situate where precisely politics is located with regard to economic matters Politics the book demonstrates thus appears at the turning point in the place where the efficiency of economics is negotiated and where the need to forward it reshape it and complement it emerges This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Cultural Economy      Covering Islam Edward W. Said, 2015-08-19 In this classic work the author of Culture and Imperialism reveals the hidden agendas and distortions of fact that underlie even the most objective coverage of the Islamic world With a new foreword by Laleh Khalili No one studying the relations between the West and the decolonizing world can ignore Mr Said's work The New York Times Book Review From the Iranian hostage crisis through the Gulf War and the bombing of the World Trade Center the American news media have portrayed Islam as a monolithic entity synonymous with terrorism and religious hysteria At the same time Islamic countries use Islam to justify unrepresentative and often repressive regimes Combining political commentary with literary criticism Covering Islam continues Edward Said's lifelong investigation of the ways in which language not only describes but also defines political reality      Economic and Political Change in the Middle East Elias Tuma, 2014-10-30 In the early 1960s the Middle East suffered from political instability inefficiency of government widespread poverty and inequality low productivity and a mounting population pressure on the region's resources With the exception of some of the oil exporting countries the entire region still suffers from these same burdens There have been many studies in the economic development and industrialization of the region in recent years This study is different motivated by scepticism and a sense of intellectual frustration and apprehension because of the apparent inadequacy of socioeconomic and political development in the Middle East First published in 1987      Goodlands Frances W. Kaye, 2011 Amer European settlement of the Great Plains transformed bountiful Native soil into pasture and cropland distorting the prairie ecosystem that the peoples who originally populated the land had long understood and were able to use wisely Settlers justified this transformation with the unexamined premise of deficiency according to which the vast area of the Great Plains was inadequate in flora and fauna and lacking in the advances of modern civilization Drawing on history literature art and economic theory Frances W Kaye counters the argument of deficiency pointing out that in its original ecological state no region can possibly be incomplete Goodlands examines the settlers misguided theory discussing the ideas that shaped its implementation the forces that resisted it and Indigenous ideologies about what it meant to make good use of the land By suggesting methods for redeveloping the Great Plains that are based on native cultural values Kaye points the way to a balanced and sustainable future for the region in the context of a changing globe Frances W Kaye is professor of English at the University of Nebraska

She is the author of Hiding the Audience Arts and Arts Institutions on the Prairies Kaye divides her time between a farmstead outside Lincoln Nebraska and a house in Calgary so that she may always be close to the prairie land that drives her research

Powery, 2000-05-10 The Spirit and the Mind a collection of essays in honor of Pentecostal scholar Donald N Bowdle unites a wide ranging group of authors in an attempt to articulate the Pentecostal tradition of the Christian faith The topics vary from biblical criticism to specifically Pentecostal issues The editors concerned with the popular perception of Pentecostal scholarship have gathered together a selection of pieces that demonstrate the diversity and intellect of the scholars from this tradition Issues explored include prayer and mysticism the need for integrity in ministry the doctrines of justification and sanctification and the need for an informed Pentecostalism      The Atlantic Monthly James Russell Lowell, James Thomas Fields, William Dean Howells, Thomas Bailey Aldrich, Horace Elisha Scudder, Walter Hines Page, Bliss Perry, Ellery Sedgwick, 1975      The Arab Middle East and the United States Burton Ira Kaufman, 1996 Kaufman also details the impact of the cold war on U S Arab relations In his view Washington s abiding concern with communist expansion after 1945 pervaded and perverted the U S approach to the Arab Middle East Combined with the rise of Arab nationalism Kaufman argues the hardening of the cold war led to an American myopia regarding the Middle East that a more regional perspective might have avoided      Arab Oil, 1983
