The Meaning of "Make Disciples" in the Broader Context of the Gospel of Matthew Lindsay D. Arthur, 2022-05-09 Students of the Bible are generally comfortable with their understanding of the command make disciples Matt 28 19 Indeed most of them would argue that the Gospel writer Matthew spells out very clearly the meaning of the term in the Great Commission Matt 28 16 20 by utilizing three key words viz go ing baptizing and teaching This point of view is the result of centuries of scholarly opinion that has looked primarily if not solely to these three adjacent participles of make disciples Matt 28 19 and not to the entire Gospel of Matthew for the meaning of the command This book does not suggest that going baptizing and teaching are not to be considered in determining the essence of Christian disciple making Rather it contends that the three terms should not be our only source of meaning This problem is tackled herein by demonstrating that Matthew establishes a framework within the Great Commission itself that points to a fuller meaning of make disciples in the broader context of his Gospel and that the Gospel writer expects his reader to draw on his entire Gospel to grasp the full meaning of this important command

Teaching Stones to Love Waldie N Neufeld, 2020-11-27 Did Jesus intend churches to use programs to make disciples Then why did Jesus invite his followers to be with him 24/7 Why not be like the Rabbis and just teach them a class each week Notice how in being in each other s space Jesus used real life situations to stretch their thinking expose their hard heartedness encourage compassion and grow them into world changers In doing life on life with Jesus they found out what it meant to be loved and to love to be cared for and to care and to be empowered for service If Jesus commanded disciple making then he left a model to follow Through his model as found in the Gospels he invites us into a relational though messy down to earth life on life process of disciple making accomplished through Christ s love and the power of the Holy Spirit
