Make A World Of Difference:

Making a World of Difference National Academy of Engineering, 2014-01-01 Fifty years ago the National Academy of Engineering NAE was founded by the stroke of a pen when the National Academy of Sciences Council approved the NAE's articles of organization Making a World of Difference commemorates the NAE anniversary with a collection of essays that highlight the prodigious changes in people's lives that have been created by engineering over the past half century and consider how the future will be similarly shaped Over the past 50 years engineering has transformed our lives literally every day and it will continue to do so going forward utilizing new capabilities creating new applications and providing ever expanding services to people The essays of Making a World of Difference discuss the seamless integration of engineering into both our society and our daily lives and present a vision of what engineering may deliver in the next half century

Making a World of Difference Miles Boston, 2010-04 Every once in a while a book is published that reminds us what is best about being human This is such a book It tells the true and inspiring stories of ordinary people who became extraordinary who changed their lives in order to make the world a better place These amazing people live with the joy of knowing they make a difference Their joy will inspire you In this inspiration book writer and film maker Miles Boston tells the stories of people from around the world who despite unlikely backgrounds have used their skills and energy to change the lives of those less fortunate than themselves They demonstrate that one person can make a difference and by doing so live a life of sheer joy Who would have thought that a Catholic priest from New York would end up caring for the dying in a Buddhist hospice in Thailand Or that a marketing executive with a glamorous job at L'Oréal in Paris would open a beauty salon and restaurant in Cambodia staffed by former street kids And there are more extraordinary journeys the couple in Amsterdam who built an animal farm for children in a slum the rebel leader from Darfur who fights for his people from afar the blonde Australian who champions the rights of sex workers world wide the investment banker from Hong Kong who has helped thousands of children orphaned when the blood supply was contaminated by AIDS and the Methodist minister in America who discovered her preacher husband was gay then devoted her life to helping young people threatened by violence drug addiction and unsafe sex What unites the people in this book is their passion and compassion And what the book reveals is their secret that in doing good for others you transform your own life and gain what one person calls the contentment of giving Often eye opening always challenging this is a book that can change lives even your life

A World of Difference Philip W. Porter, David R. Faust, 2009-08-08 Widely regarded as the standard text on development geography this volume examines the nature and causes of global inequality and critically analyzes contemporary approaches to economic development across the third world Students gain a deeper understanding of the interacting dynamics of culture gender race and class biophysical factors such as climate population and natural resources and economic and political processes all of which have led to the present day disparities between the first and third worlds Numerous examples sidebars and figures illustrate how people in the global South are experiencing and contesting the forces of globalization New to This Edition Updated to reflect a decade of economic political and social changes Extensively revised more fully integrates postcolonial and feminist perspectives Broadens the prior edition's focus on Africa with examples from around the world A chapter on the promises and pitfalls of sustainable development
