Making Of Late Antiquity:

The Making of Late Antiquity Peter Brown, 1978 This book explores the significant changes that took place in the classical world between the late second and early fourth centuries A new elitism in religion had its parallel in society as a whole and a wide polarization of the wealthy and the poor developed as unbridled ambition made the sharp distinction between the rulers and the ruled From publisher's description

The Making of Late Antiquity Peter Robert Lamont Brown, 1993

Christians Shaping Identity from the Roman Empire to Byzantium Geoffrey Dunn, Wendy Mayer, 2015-07-14 The essays collected in Christians Shaping Identity celebrate Pauline Allen's significant contribution to early Christian late antique and Byzantine studies especially concerning bishops heresy orthodoxy and christology Covering the period from earliest Christianity to middle Byzantium the first eighteen essays explore the varied ways in which Christians constructed their own identity and that of the society around them A final four essays explore the same theme within Roman Catholicism and oriental Christianity in the late 19th to 21st centuries with particular attention to the subtle relationships between the shaping of the early Christian past and the moulding of Christian identity today Among the many leading scholars represented are Averil Cameron and Elizabeth A Clark

Making Martyrs in Late Antiquity Lucy Grig, 2004-12-24 Making Martyrs focuses on both artistic and textual representations to investigate the making of martyrs in the fourth and fifth century Latin West It shows that this making of martyrs played a crucial role in the process of Christianisation during the post Constantinian period The writings of some of the most important figures in late antique Christianity Augustine Ambrose and Jerome are considered along with a number of anonymous marginal and marginalised texts The book covers such major subjects as the history of martyrdom and martyr texts and the role of images and relics in cult and representation It also examines a number of key themes including the role of spectacle in martyr representation the importance of suffering in the construction of Christian identity and the interaction of text and image in the process of representation Between the chapters proper are inserts focusing on individual martyrs such as the African martyr bishop Cyprian and the virgin martyr par excellence Agnes These sections provide close readings of the textual and material testimony and show how politics textual sexual and ecclesiastical were bound up in the making of martyrs The power of the martyrs in Late Antiquity and beyond is clearly demonstrated

Christianity, Empire, and the Making of Religion in Late Antiquity Jeremy M. Schott, 2013-04-23 In Christianity Empire and the Making of Religion in Late Antiquity Jeremy M Schott examines the ways in which conflicts between Christian and pagan intellectuals over religious ethnic and cultural identity contributed to the transformation of Roman imperial rhetoric and ideology in the early fourth century C E During this turbulent period which began with Diocletian's persecution of the Christians and ended with Constantine's assumption of sole rule and the consolidation of a new Christian empire Christian apologists and anti Christian polemicists launched a number of literary salvos in a battle for the minds and souls of the empire Schott focuses on the works of the Platonist philosopher and anti Christian polemicist Porphyry of Tyre and his Christian respondents the Latin rhetorician Lactantius Eusebius bishop of Caesarea and the emperor Constantine Previous scholarship has tended to narrate the Christianization of the empire in terms of a new religion s penetration and conquest of classical culture and society The present work in contrast seeks to suspend the static essentializing conceptualizations of religious identity that lie behind many studies of social and political change in late antiquity in order to investigate the processes through which Christian and pagan identities were constructed Drawing on the insights of postcolonial discourse analysis Schott argues that the production of Christian identity and in turn the construction of a Christian imperial discourse were intimately and inseparably linked to the broader politics of Roman imperialism Journal of Library History, Philosophy, and Comparative Librarianship ,1980

Brother-making in Late Antiquity and Byzantium Claudia Rapp,2016 Among medieval Christian societies Byzantium is unique in preserving an ecclesiastical ritual of adelphopoiesis which pronounces two men not related by birth as brothers for life It has its origin as a spiritual blessing in the monastic world of late antiquity and it becomes a popular social networking strategy among lay people from the ninth century onwards even finding application in recent times Located at the intersection of religion and society brother making exemplifies how social practice can become ritualized and subsequently subjected to attempts of ecclesiastical and legal control Controversially adelphopoiesis was at the center of a modern debate about the existence of same sex unions in medieval Europe This book the first ever comprehensive history of this unique feature of Byzantine life argues persuasively that the ecclesiastical ritual to bless a relationship between two men bears no resemblance to marriage Wide ranging in its use of sources from a complete census of the manuscripts containing the ritual of adelphopoiesis to the literature and archaeology of early monasticism and from the works of hagiographers historiographers and legal experts in Byzantium to comparative material in the Latin West and the Slavic world Brother Making in Late Antiquity and Byzantium examines the fascinating religious and social features of the ritual shedding light on little known aspects of Byzantine society

The Making Of Christian Communities in Late Antiquity and the Middle Ages Mark F. Williams,2004-07-01 The Making of Christian Communities sheds light on one of the most crucial periods in the development of the Christian faith It considers the development and spread of Christianity between Late Antiquity and the Middle Ages and includes analysis of the formation and development of Christian communities in a variety of arenas ranging from Late Roman Cappadocia and Constantinople to the court of Charlemagne and the twelfth century province of Rheims France during the twelfth century Virgins of God Susanna Elm,2000 Alienation Antigone Samellas,2010 Part of the second chapter will appear at the proceedings of the conference and another part of the same chapter was presented at the Centre of Late Antiquity at Duke University in 2004 Fakes and Forgers of Classical Literature Javier Martínez,2014-01-16 Right from the beginning classical literature has been embroiled with questions of authenticity fakes frauds and of course scandal Issues of dubious authorship and contested authority confront philologists critics and publishers today as surely as they did in the classical era itself The new era of postmodernism however encourages us to look at the work of the forger with fresh eyes and recent scholarship reflects this in an interdisciplinary approach which goes well beyond the conventional academic endeavor to separate the authentic from the fake Fakes and Forgers of Classical Literature comprises essays from an international cast of scholars who in their diverse and creative approaches to questions of authenticity both old and new radically revise the position of the forged text in the literary tradition and in light of modern approaches of philology and literary criticism offer exciting new strategies for understanding forgery and the play with authenticity within ancient literature itself A Companion to Late Antiquity Philip

Rousseau,2012-02-20 An accessible and authoritative overview capturing the vitality and diversity of scholarship that exists on the transformative time period known as late antiquity Provides an essential overview of current scholarship on late antiquity from between the accession of Diocletian in AD 284 and the end of Roman rule in the Mediterranean Comprises 39 essays from some of the world s foremost scholars of the era Presents this once neglected period as an age of powerful transformation that shaped the modern world Emphasizes the central importance of religion and its connection with economic social and political life Winner of the 2009 Single Volume Reference Humanities Social Sciences PROSE award granted by the Association of American Publishers Virgins of God Susanna Elm,American Council of Learned

Societies,1996 For the Sake of the World Patrick Henry,Donald K. Swearer,1989 Authors discuss the similarities between Buddhism and Christianity Popular Culture in the Ancient World Lucy Grig,2016-11-28 Popular Culture in the Ancient World is the first book to provide an interdisciplinary study of the subject Traditionally neglected by classical scholars popular culture provides a new window through which we can view the ancient world An international group of scholars tackles a fascinating range of subjects and objects from dice oracles to dressing up from toys to theological speculation Diverse comparative and theoretical approaches are used alongside many different ancient sources to provide a wide ranging and rigorous approach to ancient popular culture After a substantive introduction the book moves from classical Greece through the Roman Empire to end in the late antique world It enriches our understanding of the ancient world as well as our conception of the legacy of the ancient world in our own The Journal of Library History ,1980

The Falls of Rome Michele Renee Salzman,2021-09-09 Focuses on the resilience of generations of Roman men and women and their ability to reconstitute their city and society 中國香港大學 Chinese University of Hong Kong, Messianism and Puritanical Reform Mercedes García-Arenal,2006 This is a book about revolutionary movements of a messianic and millenarian character led by a mahdi in Islamic terms a charismatic messianic leader It also addresses the question of mediation between God and men and the political repercussions of this question in the history of the pre Modern Muslim West Mahdism is considered in relation to sufi ideas terminology and symbols which shape notions of authority and of legitimate power when claiming direct intimate contact between the holy and the divine The relationship between mahdism
