Making Of The Second Cold War:

The Making of the Second Cold War Fred Halliday, 1983 The Making of the Second Cold War Fred Halliday, 1986 We are living through the Second Cold War yet what is it Millions in East and West now fear a nuclear conflict yet confrontation and panic continue to obscure understanding of the processes that might trigger a hot war Fred Halliday presents a clearly written anatomy of these international tensions He identifies the chief cause of cold war as the globalized contest between the USA and USSR and the arms race in which these states are engaged He then explains the five main elements of the conflict the relative decline in US nuclear strategic superiority since the 1960s the new wave of Third World revolutions the political stalemate of the post capitalist states the rise of the New Right in the USA and the sharpened contradictions between the Western countries themselves The Making of the Second Cold War provides a careful integrated political history of international developments since the 1960s No other book on the subject has the same range or attempts to knit together all the factors that have produced the contemporary world situation From Cold War to Collapse Mike Bowker, Robin Brown, 1993 A review of the survival of International Relations theories after the collapse of the Cold War The Making of the Second Cold War Fred Halliday, 1986 Creating the Second Cold War Simon Dalby, 2016-10-06 The Cold War is over yet many attitudes and analyses typical of the period persisted in the strategic thinking of the Great Powers In this brilliantly original study Simon Dalby uses the conceptual tools of geopolitical analysis to uncover the essence of American strategic discourse Focussing on the period of the late 1970s he shows how Washington pressure groups political organisations and in particular the Committee on the Present Danger recreated a language of confrontation that deeply influenced Western attitudes towards the Soviet Union in ways that continue to shape foreign policy The Culture of the Second Cold War Richard Sakwa, 2025-02-04 The work examines the metapolitics of the Second Cold War The focus is less on the detailed analysis of diplomatic history and processes in international politics and more on the underlying attitudes and ideologies that have generated and sustained Cold War 2 The work examines the definition of a Cold War and reasons for the persistence of this form of international politics as well as the clash over interpretations of the causes of renewed conflict The work then looks at how this Cold War is being conducted including renewed militarism the suppression of dissent the decline of diplomacy and the reduced opportunities for dialogue The instruments of the Cold War 2 include sanctions and the reinterpretation of history and memory wars Many of the familiar methods drawn from Cold War 1 are now applied but in novel ways to reflect technological change as well as the different ideological contexts The position of the global South in this Cold War is examined and the work ends with some reflections on possible ways this Cold War could end The Second Cold War Aaron Donaghy, 2021-04-29 Towards the end of the Cold War the last great struggle between the United States and the Soviet Union marked the end of a tense and escalated into the most dangerous phase of the conflict since the Cuban Missile Crisis Aaron Donaghy examines the complex history of America's largest peacetime military buildup which was in turn challenged by the largest peacetime peace movement Focusing on the critical period between 1977 and 1985 Donaghy shows how domestic politics shaped dramatic foreign policy reversals by Presidents Jimmy Carter and Ronald Reagan He explains why the Cold War intensified so quickly and how contrary to all expectations US Soviet relations were repaired Drawing on recently declassified archival material The Second Cold War traces how each administration evolved in response to crises and events at home and abroad This compelling and controversial account challenges the accepted notion of how the end of the Cold War began The Second Cold War K. Subrahmanyam,1983 Contributed articles on world politics

Creating the Second Cold War Simon Dalby,1990 The Arms Dynamic in South-East Asia During the Second Cold War Mark. G. Roll,2017-11-30 This title was first published in 2002 This work uses the concept of the arms dynamic to identify and assess the various factors which influenced arms acquisitions of Southeast Asian states during the second Cold War period from 1979 to 1989 providing an essential basis for understanding contemporary developments The book provides a comprehensive and systematic explanation of the reasons for arms purchases in SE Asia during the 1980s and aims to fill a gap in the literature by fully exploring arms procurement processes in the region prior to the end of the Cold War Irish Slavonic Studies,1984 Soviet Studies Guide Tania Kohn,1992 Critical bibliographic references to core literature on land environment and people Soviet history society and culture government and politics international relations armed forces economy business science and technology and general reference Brzezinski and the Emergence of the Second Cold War Thomas F. Brasher,1994 Global Problems and World Order Robert D. McKinlay,Richard Little,1986 Rolling Back Revolution Ivan Moll,2001-07-20 Leading Marxist thinkers re evaluate Trotsky's key theories an ideal introduction for students Marxism Today,1984 Whitaker's Books in Print,1990 West Africa,1984 Conflict Management in a New Era Talat Ayesha Wizarat,1997 Ireland and the Challenge of European Integration Dermot Keogh,1989
