Manual Gothic Romance:

The novel of sentiment and the Gothic romance Ernest Albert Baker,1929 Handbook of Freemasonry ,2014-06-12
Freemasonry is the largest oldest and most influential secret society in the world The Brill Handbook of Freemasonry is a pioneering work that brings together for the first time leading scholars on Freemasonry The first section covers historical perspectives such as the origins and early history of Freemasonry The second deals with the relationship between Freemasonry and specific religious traditions such as the Catholic Church Judaism and Islam In the third section organisational themes such as the use of rituals are explored while the fourth section deals with issues related to society and politics women blacks colonialism nationalism and war The fifth and final section is devoted to Freemasonry and culture including music literature modern art architecture and material culture

A Manual of English Literature and of the History of the English Language George Lillie Craik,1883 Dirty Work Ann Mattis,2019-04-09

Dirty Work sheds light on the complex relationships between women employers and their household help in the early twentieth century through their representations in literature including women s magazines conduct manuals and particularly female authored fiction Domestic service brought together women from different classes races and ethnicities and with it a degree of social anxiety as upwardly mobile young women struggled to construct their identities in a changing world The book focuses on the works of Charlotte Perkins Gilman Edith Wharton Gertrude Stein Nella Larsen Jessie Fauset Anzia Yezierska and Fannie Hurst and their various depictions of the maid mistress relationship revealing a feminized and racialized brand of class hegemony Modern servants became configured as racial hygienic and social threats to the emergent ideal of the nuclear family and played critical rhetorical roles in first wave feminism and the New Negro movements Ann Mattis reveals how U S domestic service was the political unconscious of cultural narratives that attempted to define modern domesticity and progressive femininity in monolithic terms
