Natural Victims:

Knowing Victims Rebecca Stringer, 2014-06-20 Knowing Victims explores the theme of victimhood in contemporary feminism and politics. It focuses on popular and scholarly constructions of feminism as victim feminism, an ideology of passive victimhood that denies women's agency and provides the first comprehensive analysis of the debate about this ideology which has unfolded among feminists since the 1980s. The book critically examines a movement away from the language of victimhood across a wide array of discourses and the neoliberal replacement of the concept of structural oppression with the concept of personal responsibility. In derogating the notion of victim, neoliberalism promotes a conception of victimization as subjective rather than social, a state of mind rather than a worldly situation. Drawing upon Nietzsche, Lyotard, rape crisis feminism and feminist philosophy, Stringer situates feminist politicizations of rape, interpersonal violence, economic inequality and welfare reform as key sites of resistance to the victim-blaming logic of neoliberalism. She suggests that although recent feminist critiques of victim feminism have critically diagnosed the anti-victim movement, they have not positively defended victim politics. Stringer argues that a conception of the victim as an agentic bearer of knowledge and an understanding of resentment as a generative force for social change provides a potent counter to the negative construction of victimhood characteristic of the neoliberal era. This accessible and insightful analysis of feminism, neoliberalism and the social construction of victimhood will be of great interest to researchers and students in the disciplines of gender and women's studies, psychology, sociology, politics and philosophy.

Reparations for Victims of Genocide, War Crimes and Crimes against Humanity Carla Ferstman, Mariana Goetz, Alan Stephens, 2009-04-24 This book provides detailed analyses of systems that have been established to provide reparations to victims of genocide, crimes against humanity and war crimes, and the way in which these systems have worked and are working in practice. Many of these systems are described and assessed for the first time in an academic publication. The publication draws upon a groundbreaking Conference organised by the Clemens Nathan Research Centre (CNRC) and REDRESS at the Peace Palace in The Hague with the support of the Dutch Carnegie Foundation. Both CNRC and REDRESS had become very concerned about the extreme difficulty encountered by most victims of serious international crimes in attempting to access effective and enforceable remedies and reparation for harm suffered. In discussions between the Conference organisers and Judges and officials of the International Criminal Court, it became ever more apparent that there was a great need for frank and open exchanges on the question of effective reparation between the representatives of victims, NGOs and IGOs and other experts. It was clear to all that the many current initiatives of governments and regional and international institutions to afford reparations to victims of genocide, crimes against humanity and war crimes could benefit greatly by taking into full account the wide and varied practice that had been built up over several decades. In particular, the Hague Conference sought to consider in detail the long experience of the Conference on Jewish Material Claims against Germany, the Claims Conference, in respect of Holocaust restitution programmes as well as the practice of truth commissions arbitral proceedings and a variety of national processes to identify common trends best practices and lessons This book thus explores the actions of governments as well as of national and international courts and commissions in applying processing implementing and enforcing a variety of reparations schemes and awards Crucially it considers the entire complex of issues from the perspective of the beneficiaries survivors and their communities and from the perspective of the policy makers and implementers tasked with resolving technical and procedural challenges in bringing to fruition adequate effective and meaningful reparations in the context of mass victimisation Suicide--Eminaq Camilius Chike Egeni Ph. D.,Camilius Chike Egeni,2011 This book discussed the causes of suicide and provides recommendations on how to reduce suicide It provides suicide solutions that have eluded health and public policy experts for decades It is a practical book that provides practical solutions to convoluted public problem of suicide It is a good book for public policy experts public sector administrators scholars of management studies politicians who want to create and add values sociologists law enforcement officials health officials public policy advocates and various other decision makers It is also a good book for social science scholars and researchers Stalking Alejandra Ibañez,2023-05-04 Stalking A Social Monster of Our Times is a book that delves into the dark and dangerous phenomenon of stalking in modern society It explores the psychology behind stalkers and the devastating impact their behavior can have on their victims The book discusses the various forms of stalking including cyberstalking and celebrity stalking and the ways in which technology has made it easier for stalkers to harass their victims It also provides practical advice for those who may be experiencing stalking including how to recognize the signs of stalking and how to seek help Through personal accounts and case studies the book sheds light on the lasting trauma and emotional damage that stalking can cause It also highlights the need for greater awareness and action to address this serious issue both on an individual and societal level Overall Stalking A Social Monster of Our Times is a powerful and informative book that offers a comprehensive examination of stalking and its impact on our society It is a must read for anyone who wants to understand this dangerous behavior and work towards preventing it Natural Victims Isabel Eberstadt,1983 Cassell's Natural History Peter Martin Duncan,1883 Cassell's Natural History ,1895 Manford's Magazine ,1885 *Vargo v.
