Modern Process Thought:

The Genesis of Modern Process Thought George R. Lucas, 1983 Science and Mind in Contemporary Process Thought Jakub Dziadkowiec, Lukasz Lamza, 2019-09-17 The relationship of mind to matter and the very understanding of mind and matter still eludes understanding even after millennia of philosophical work and centuries of scientific reflection The present volume shows how process philosophy helps us in conceptualizing such problems The reader will find twelve chapters written by prominent specialists of various specializations discussing the relation between a processual school of thinking and natural and psychological scientific research with a focus on the problems of mind and experience The three successive sections of the book scrutinise in increasing detail the human mind to give the full overview of the role that process philosophy might play in providing a consistent unified language for the description of physical and mental reality

Modern Process Thought James Robert Gray, 1982 This book is designed to introduce Process philosophy through a study of the history of its development In order to do this one must begin with certain philosophical and scientific influences of the late nineteenth century From that time until the present Process thought developed and matured in the minds of men such as Henri Bergson Samuel Alexander Teilhard de Chardin Alfred North Whitehead Charles Hartshorne and Norman Pittenger

God in Process Thought S. Sia, 2012-12-06 One of the controversial issues which have recently come into prominence among philosophers and theologians is how one should understand the term I God It seems that despite the fact that a certain idea of God is assumed by not most people there is a degree of disagreement over the meaning many if of the term God is generally taken to refer to a supreme Being the Creator who is perfect and self existent holy personal and loving This understanding of God corresponds to what many have either been brought up to believe in or have come to accept as the meaning of this word Nevertheless theists appear to be defending a particular idea of God and to be accusing atheists of attacking another one which does not tie in with the theistic interpretation Cardinal Maximus IV for instance is quoted as saying The God the atheists don't believe in is a God I don't believe in either 2 On the other hand atheists have been challenging believers to explain clearly what they mean by God because these critics cannot see how that idea can have any acceptable meaning Furthermore theists themselves seem to be divided over the issue H P Owen in his book Concepts of Deity shows quite convincingly that there is a bewildering variety of concepts of God among theists One has only to ask around for confirmation of this observation The Old Testament and Process Theology Robert Karl Gnuse, 2016-03-08

Using the insights of process theology Gnuse explores the Old Testament beginning with the categories of classic Old Testament theology revelation suffering creation covenant justice law and salvation Reimagining Peace through Process Philosophy Juliet Bennett, 2025-03-07 This book explores the ways in which process philosophers extend and strengthen peace scholars outlines of a paradigm of for peace It then illustrates the value of such a peace paradigm through the example of the climate breakdown showing how process thinking and process metaphysics intervene at the roots of a global systemic crisis In doing so it articulates a new inroad to process philosophy and illuminates an integrative intervention in the systemic crises of climate change and global inequality The static process framework developed in this book makes the philosophy of Alfred North Whitehead and the fields he has inspired easier to grasp and offers a tool to assist in the application of process thought to a multitude of issues This framework depicts tensions between two modes of thought static and process thinking according to five basic orientations abstract context closed open isolating relational passive generative one multi dimensional This pattern is mapped across the domains of metaphysics economics politics and as the basis for a new mode of living and organising across multiple layers of society The Oxford Handbook of Phenomenologies and Organization Studies François-Xavier de Vaujany, Jeremy Aroles, Mar Pérezts, 2023 Phenomenologies are a major stream of philosophy Our aim with this handbook is to explore critically and reflexively the plurality of phenomenologies and their becoming in the context of Management and Organization Studies We detail in the introduction the genealogy of the phenomenological moment and make a distinction between four streams of phenomenologies phenomenology as a phenomenological moment post phenomenologies anti phenomenologies and non phenomenologies Beyond many clichés about phenomenologies we argue that phenomenologies cultivate critical perspectives ontologies and even for some of them metaphysics that make them particularly interwoven with other philosophical traditions We draw implications for Management and Organization Studies as a field Religion of Tomorrow John Elov Boodin, 2024-04-11 Published in 1943 amidst the distractions of World War II Religion of Tomorrow never received the proper recognition it deserved Now some eighty years later poet philosopher John Elov Boodin's manifesto for a popular Christian renaissance is more necessary than ever With an informative historical biographical introduction and more than one hundred textual notes editor Michael A Flannery presents Boodin's spiritual roadmap for a new audience to listen and follow the divine lure towards greater creativity and fulfillment to learn by living Boodin invites readers to embark upon their own Christian journeys with the poets and sages of the ages at their side Here Boodin becomes the informed travel guide well equipped with the knowledge of history the tools of science the sensibilities of a poet and the empathy of a fellow traveler to be encouraged as was Joshua to be strong and courageous Do not be frightened and do not be dismayed for the Lord your God is with you wherever you go

Expanding Process John H. Berthrong, 2008-10-23 Expanding Process explores how comparative philosophy expands our understanding of the critical themes of process change and transformation John H Berthrong examines how notions of process manifest and shape the classical Confucianism of Xunzi the early medieval Daoism of the Liezi and Zhu Xi's Song Dynasty daoism Teaching of The Way Berthrong links these various Chinese views of process and transformation to contemporary debates in the American process pragmatic and naturalist philosophical movements Stressing how our pluralistic world calls for comparing and even appropriating insights from diverse cultural traditions Berthrong contends that comparative philosophy and theology can broaden the intellectual frontiers and foundations of any serious student of contemporary global thought The Evolving God in Jewish Process Theology William E. Kaufman,1997 Provides a systematic examination of process themes in Jewish theology After tracing process motifs in the writings of contemporary Jewish thinkers the text analyzes process theology as a form of postmodernism discussing the tensions between it and more orthodox theologies God, Literature, and Process Thought Darren J. N. Middleton,2002 This book explores and evaluates evolutionary theism which asserts that God is subject to change as humanity is subject to change charting the way it surfaces as a theme in classic modern and post modern forms of creative writing philosophical theology and cultural theory Probing texts by process thinkers such as Whitehead Bergson Teilhard and Hartshorne as well as the literary art of figures such as Aeschylus Byron Goethe Greene Joyce Kazantzakis Levertov and Shakespeare the twelve scholars in this volume reflect on God and the world on reading and interpretation and on being and becoming The contributors emerge with fresh perspectives which promise to make a substantial contribution to the field of literature and religion today Process Philosophy and Christian Thought Delwin Brown,Ralph E.
