Modern School Movement:

The Modern School Movement Paul Avrich, 2014-07-14 In this comprehensive study of the Modern School movement Paul Avrich narrates its history analyzes its successes and failures and assesses its place in American life In doing so he shows how the radical experimentation in art and communal living as well as in education during this period set the precedent for much of the artistic social and educational ferment of the 1960 s and 1970 s Originally published in 1980 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

Anarchist Education and the Modern School Francisco Ferrer, 2018-12-15 On October 13 1909 Francisco Ferrer the notorious Catalan anarchist educator and founder of the Modern School was executed by firing squad The Spanish government accused him of masterminding the Tragic Week rebellion while the transnational movement that emerged in his defense argued that he was simply the founder of the groundbreaking Modern School of Barcelona Was Ferrer a ferocious revolutionary an ardently nonviolent pedagogue or something else entirely Anarchist Education and the Modern School is the first historical reader to gather together Ferrer s writings on rationalist education revolutionary violence and the general strike most translated into English for the first time and put them into conversation with the letters speeches and articles of his comrades collaborators and critics to show that the truth about the founder of the Modern School was far more complex than most of his friends or enemies realized Francisco Ferrer navigated a tempestuous world of anarchist assassins radical republican conspirators anticlerical rioters and freethinking educators to establish the legendary Escuela Moderna and the Modern School movement that his martyrdom propelled around the globe

The Modern School Movement, 1990 Utopia, New Jersey Perdita Buchan, 2007-10-30 Utopia New Jersey For most people even the most satisfied New Jersey residents these words hardly belong in the same sentence Yet unbeknown to many history shows that the state has been a favorite location for utopian experiments for more than a century Thanks to its location between New York and Philadelphia and its affordable land it became an ideal proving ground where philosophical and philanthropical organizations and individuals could test their utopian theories In this intriguing look at this little known side of New Jersey Perdita Buchan explores eight of these communities Adopting a wide definition of the term utopia broadening

it to include experimental living arrangements with a variety of missions Buchan explains that what the founders of each of these colonies had in common was the goal of improving life at least as they saw it In every other way the communities varied greatly ranging from a cooperative colony in Englewood founded by Upton Sinclair to an anarchist village in Piscataway centered on an educational experiment to the fascinating Physical Culture City in Spotswood where drugs tobacco and corsets were banned but where nudity was widespread Despite their grand intentions all but one of the utopias a single tax colony in Berkeley Heights failed to survive But Buchan shows how each of them left a legacy of much more than the buildings or street names that remain today legacies that are inspiring surprising and often outright quirky     The Autobiography of Citizenship Tova Cooper,2015-02-08 At the turn of the twentieth century the United States was faced with a new and radically mixed population one that included freed African Americans former reservation Indians and a burgeoning immigrant population In The Autobiography of Citizenship Tova Cooper looks at how educators tried to impose unity on this divergent population and how the new citizens in turn often resisted these efforts reshaping mainstream U S culture and embracing their own view of what it means to be an American The Autobiography of Citizenship traces how citizenship education programs began popping up all over the country influenced by the progressive approach to hands on learning popularized by John Dewey and his followers Cooper offers an insightful account of these programs enlivened with compelling readings of archival materials such as photos of students in the process of learning autobiographical writing by both teachers and new citizens and memoirs photos poems and novels by authors such as W E B Du Bois Jane Addams Charles Reznikoff and Emma Goldman Indeed Cooper provides the first comparative inside look at these citizenship programs revealing that they varied wildly at one end assimilationist boarding schools required American Indian children to transform their dress language and beliefs while at the other end the libertarian Modern School encouraged immigrant children to frolic naked in the countryside and learn about the world by walking hiking and following their whims Here then is an engaging portrait of what it was like to be and become a U S citizen one hundred years ago showing that what it means to be American is never static     School ,1919     The Front Line of the Sunday School Movement Francis Nathan Peloubet,1904     The National Baptist Sunday School Lesson Commentary of the International Lessons for 1908 Richard Henry Boyd,1908     The Modern School ,1922     North Carolina Education ,1920     The Modern Review Ramananda Chatterjee,1914 Includes section Reviews and notices of books     The modern Sunday school, by various writers National Sunday school union internat. normal comm,1887     Adult Education Joseph Kinmont Hart,1927     Hadley Elizabeth Ramsey, Ellen Elizabeth Callahan, Eunice Minette Schuster, Vera Brown Holmes,1930     The Adult School Movement George Currie Martin,1924     The School of Education Record of the University of North Dakota ,1915     Current History and Modern Culture ,1902     Social Work Year Book ,1930     The School Review ,1918
