Mogul Recollected Richard Outram,1993 In 1836 an elephant drowned off the coast of New Brunswick Poet Richard Outram explores the significance of this bizarre occurrence in his brilliant new volume of poetry Mogul Recollected These witty and profound poems recreate the dismal conditions of Mogul's existence before he plunged to his death during a ship fire Some are told from the point of view of Mogul himself others from the perspective of ruthless trainers and circus owners Recasting the tragedy as an inversion of the Noah's Ark story Outram delineates with startling clarity man's betrayal of beast

Richard Outram Ingrid Ruthig,2011 Something of a foreigner in his own country Richard Outram was uncommonly dedicated to living an examined life and to the act of creation for its own reward This book represents a posthumous introductory panorama of this late Canadian poet's work written by those who continue to admire his achievement Much of it is new material offering fresh consideration and a charting of the path of Outram's lifelong engagement with poetry
