Turkey Erik J. Zürcher,2004-06-25 This revised edition builds upon and updates its twin themes of Turkey s continuing incorporation into the capitalist world and the modernization of state and society It begins with the forging of closer links with Europe after the French Revolution and the changing face of the Ottoman Empire in the 19th century Zurcher argues that Turkey s history between 1908 and 1950 should be seen as a unity and offers a strongly revisionist interpretation of Turkey s founding father Kemal Ataturk In his account of the period since 1950 Zurcher focuses on the growth of mass politics the three military coups the thorny issue of Turkey s human right s record the alliance with the West and relations with the European Community Turkey s ambivalent relations with the Middle East the increasingly explosive Kurdish question and the continuing political instability and growth of Islam

The Making of Modern Turkey Uğur Ümit Üngör,2011 Offers a novel perspective on the establishment of the Turkish nation state and highlights how the Young Turk regime from 1913 to 1950 subjected Eastern Turkey to various forms of nationalist population policies aimed at ethnically homogenizing the region and including it in the Turkish nation state

Modern Turkey Eliot Grinnell Mears,1924 Building Modern Turkey Zeynep Kezer,2015-12-29 Building Modern Turkey offers a critical account of how the built environment mediated Turkey s transition from a pluralistic multiethnic and multireligious empire into a modern homogenized nation state following the collapse of the Ottoman Empire at the end of World War I Zeynep Kezer argues that the deliberate dismantling of ethnic and religious enclaves and the spatial practices that ensued were as integral to conjuring up a sense of national unity and facilitating the operations of a modern nation state as were the creation of a new capital Ankara and other sites and services that embodied a new modern way of life The book breaks new ground by examining both the creative and destructive forces at play in the making of modern Turkey and by addressing the overwhelming frictions during this profound transformation and their long term consequences By considering spatial transformations at different scales from the experience of the individual self in space to that of international geopolitical disputes Kezer also illuminates the concrete and performative dimensions of fortifying a political ideology one that instills in the population a sense of membership in and allegiance to the nation above all competing loyalties and ensures its longevity

America and the Making of Modern Turkey Ali Erken, 2018-03-30 After the fall of the Ottoman Empire Mustafa Kemal Atatürk's government encouraged substantial American investment in education and aid It was argued that Turkey needed the technical skills and wealth offered by American education and so a series of American schools was set up across the country to educate the Turkish youth Here Ali Erken in the first study of its kind argues that these organizations had a huge impact on political and economic thought in Turkey acting as a form of soft power for US national interests throughout the 20th Century Robert College originally a missionary school founded by US benefactors has been responsible for educating two Turkish Prime Ministers writers such as Orhan Pamuk and a huge number of influential economists politicians and journalists The end result of these American philanthropic efforts Erken argues was a consensus in the 1970s that the country must westernize This mindset and the opposition viewpoint it engendered has come to define political struggle in modern Turkey torn between a capitalist modern West and an Islamic Ottoman East The book also reveals how and why the Rockefeller and Ford foundations funneled large amounts of money into Turkey post 1945 and undertook activities in support of Western candidates in Turkey as a bulwark against the Soviet Union This is an essential contribution to the history of US Turkish relations and the influence of the West in Turkish political thought

The Struggle for Modern Turkey Sabiha

Sertel, 2019-07-11 Sabiha Sertel was born into revolution in 1895 as an independent Turkey rose out of the dying Ottoman Empire. The nation's first professional female journalist, her unrelenting push for democracy and social reforms ultimately cost Sertel her country and freedom. Shortly before her death in 1968, Sertel completed her autobiography Roman Gibi (Like a Novel), which was written during her forced exile in the Soviet Union. Translated here into English for the first time and complete with a new introduction and comprehensive annotations, it offers a rare perspective on Turkey's history as it moved to embrace democracy then violently recoiled. The book reveals the voice of a passionate feminist and committed socialist who clashes with the young republic's leadership. A unique first-hand account, the text foreshadows Turkey's increasingly authoritarian state. Sertel offers her perspective on the fierce divisions over the republic's constitution and covers issues including freedom of the press, women's civil rights, and the pre-WWII discussions with European leaders about Hitler's rising power. More information about the book, photographs, reviews, and events can be found at a special website dedicated to the book: www.struggleformodernTurkey.com.
