Kurdish National Movement Wadie Jwaideh,2006-06-19 A seminal work in the field of Kurdish studies Wadie Jwaideh s pioneering research published for the first time presents a detailed analysis of the early phases of Kurdish nationalism and offers a framework within which to understand the movement s later development Following Wadie Jwaideh s dissertation defense his doctoral chairman took aside Jwaideh s wife Alice and asked her to submit the work for publication without

Wadie s permission believing that Wadie s penchant for perfection would postpone its publication indefinitely The thesis was never published during Jwaideh s lifetime but its fame spread by word of mouth and many scholars have recognized its importance not only as a study of the earlier periods of Kurdish nationalism but also as a model for understanding its subsequent history The work now stands as a classic referenced by some of the most renowned scholars in the field Its publication will permit it to reach a greater audience and to contribute more fully to the understanding and appreciation of this geopolitical and cultural movement Jwaideh was born in the southern Iraqi city of Basra into an Arabic speaking

Christian family that later moved to Baghdad His intimate knowledge of the land and its people gave Jwaideh shrewd insight into Kurdish society and politics Exploring the rich historical roots of the Kurdish national movement he challenges the established view of the early Kurdish uprisings as isolated incidents triggered by economic hardship or political dissatisfaction Instead he offers a new interpretation of the Kurds nationalist position convincingly demonstrating the age and depth of their grievances This complex and layered history of the Kurdish nationalist movement offers a valuable perspective from which to view the current conditions in Iraq Jwaideh s sensitive and prescient treatment of this region gives his study great contemporary relevance    The Muslim World ,1930    Studying Islam in the Arab World Sari Hanafi,2023-12-22 Addressing the rupture between religious and social sciences in Arab universities this book provides a critical assessment of the curricula of Shariah and Islamic Studies departments across the Arab World arguing for increased interdisciplinary dialogue Based on over 250 interviews with university students and teachers this study is the sum of five years of field research observing the curricula and teaching styles of colleges in the Shariah sciences The author provides critical insight into these curricula by focusing on case studies in Lebanon and Jordan Morocco Kuwait and Qatar and in Malaysia In doing so the book aims to answer the following questions What is the aim of religious education Does it aim to create people who specialize solely in religious affairs or does it aim to form the student according to a comprehensive human framework What is the nature of the relationship between the social sciences and the Shariah sciences The book concludes by examining three pioneering institutions which have introduced alternative curricula in teaching Shariah studies The book has wide geographic and ideological coverage and will appeal to university students academics and policy analysts working across a range of disciplines including the philosophy of knowledge Islamic law and education and sociology
