Mastering the Grade 3 FCAT in Reading James Killoran, Stuart Zimmer, Mark Jarrett, 2003-01-01 Language, Literacy, and Pedagogy in Postindustrial Societies Paul C. Mocombe, Carol Tomlin, 2013 In postindustrial economies such as the United States and Great Britain the black white achievement gap is perpetuated by an emphasis on language and language skills with which black American and black British Caribbean youths often struggle This work analyzes the nature of educational pedagogy in the contemporary capitalist world system under American hegemony Mocombe and Tomlin interpret the role of education as an institutional or ideological apparatus for capitalist domination and examine the sociolinguistic means or pedagogies by which global and local social actors are educated within the capitalist world system to serve the needs of capital i e capital accumulation Two specific case studies one in the United States and one in the United Kingdom are utilized to demonstrate how contemporary educational emphasis on language and literacy parallels the organization of work and contributes to the debate on academic underachievement of black students vis a vis their white and Asian counterparts Structuring Learning Environments in Teacher Education to Elicit Dispositions as Habits of Mind Erskine S. Dottin, Lynne D. Miller, George E. O'Brien, 2013-02-14 This book focuses on faculty members in a learning community in the College of Education at Florida International University It discusses their pedagogical efforts to structure learning environments consistent with the philosophical orientation in the college s conceptual framework to call forth dispositions or key habits of mind that are consistent with reflective intelligence Florida School Laws Florida, 2011

Wise Social Studies in an Age of High-Stakes Testing Elizabeth Anne Yeager, O. L. Davis, 2005-06-01 This volume showcases how teachers bring creativity higher order thinking and meaningful learning into schools despite standards and testing pressures It emphasizes wise powerful and ambitious pedagogical practices highlighting the crucial role of teachers in mediating educational policy and engaging students in impactful experiences Journal of the Senate, State of Florida Florida. Managing School Districts for High Performance Stacey Childress, 2007 Managing School Districts for High Performance brings together more than twenty case studies and other readings that offer a powerful and transformative approach to advancing and sustaining the work of school improvement At the center of this work is the concept of organizational coherence aligning organizational design human capital management resource allocation and accountability and performance improvement systems to support an overarching strategy This central idea provides a valuable conceptual framework for current and future school leaders The case studies presented in Managing School Districts for High Performance grow out of the Public Education Leadership Project PELP a unique partnership between the Harvard Business School the Harvard Graduate School of Education and a network of urban school districts This rich array of cases explores the managerial challenges districts face as they seek to ensure rich learning opportunities and high achievement for all students across a system of schools This book of insightful case studies fills a void long felt by educational administrators in search of practical real world training tools It will serve as a catalyst for the tough conversations district leaders need to have about achieving high quality outcomes for all students The Broad Center for the Management of School Systems has used many of these cases with great success and we are excited that they are now compiled into a single collection Dan Katzir Managing Director The Broad Foundation This volume is not a treatise about how schools and districts should work Rather it provides a deep immersion in the real dilemmas involved in advancing school district reform Anyone who works through these cases cannot help but come away with a more informed vision for change a more reflective orientation about the interrelationships among the multiple tasks involved and a more prudent grasp of what it takes to educate all children to high academic standards The course of study presented by Managing School Districts for High Performance should be required professional education for anyone charged with advancing a coherent agenda of school improvement in our diverse demanding and rapidly changing society Anthony S Bryk Spencer Professor of Organizational Studies Stanford University This set of case studies offers practitioners policymakers and scholars the opportunity to learn from the collective wisdom and real life experiences of educational leaders involved in systemic transformation Implementing coherent reform strategies designed to improve and sustain student performance often takes place in a vacuum As a former urban superintendent I believe that these selected educational case studies provide a compelling forum for shared experiential teaching and learning Arlene Ackerman Christian A Johnson Professor of Outstanding Educational Practice Teachers College Columbia University This collaboration between the Harvard Business School and the Harvard Graduate School of Education provides a set of analytical tools to address the most complex and challenging issues facing urban public schools The contemporary case studies document actual choices and constraints and point to patterns and similarities across organizations from urban schools to corporate environments Carol Johnson Superintendent Boston Public Schools Stacy Childress is a lecturer at Harvard Business School Richard F Elmore is the Gregory R Anrig Professor of Educational Leadership at the Harvard Graduate School of Education Allen S Grossman is the MBA Class of 1957 Professor of Management Practice at Harvard Business School Susan Moore Johnson is the Pforzheimer Professor of Teaching and Learning at the Harvard Graduate School of Education Reading Text Howard I.

West's Florida Statutes Annotated Florida, 1943 Florida Administrative Register, 2010-07 All Students Can Succeed Jean Stockard, Timothy W. Wood, Cristy Coughlin, Caitlin Rasplika Khoury, 2020-07-09 Based on more than ten years of research All Students Can Succeed presents a comprehensive review of research related to Direct Instruction DI a highly structured method of teaching based on the assumption that all students can learn if given appropriate instruction The authors identify over 500 research reports published over the last 50 years and encompassing almost 4 000 effect sizes no doubt the largest meta analysis of any single method of instruction ever published Extensive statistical analyses show that estimates of DI s effectiveness are consistent over time with different research approaches across different school environments students from all types of backgrounds different comparative programs and both academic achievement and non academic outcomes including student self confidence Effects are substantially stronger than those reported for other curricula When students have DI for more time and when teachers implement the programs as designed the effects are even stronger Results indicate that DI has the potential to dramatically change patterns of student achievement in the United States In an even handed style accessible to policy makers educators and parents the authors describe the theory underlying DI its development use and history systematically examine criticisms and discuss policy implications Extensive appendices provide detailed information for researchers

Transforming Public Education Stacey Childress,2010 Transforming Public Education features nineteen cases that profile entrepreneurs who are pursuing opportunities to create pattern breaking social change in our public schools For nearly two decades education entrepreneurs have been working to transform the K 12 public education system in the United States Social entrepreneurship has become part of the language of a new generation of idealists many of whom are focused on education The nineteen cases in this book profile entrepreneurs who are pursuing opportunities to create pattern breaking social change in our public schools in particular by creating high quality educational opportunities for low income and minority students who are dramatically underserved by the current public education system Based on a popular course developed and taught at the Harvard Business School this casebook is organized into four modules Understanding the Context of Urban Schooling in the United States Tackling the People Problem Focusing on Performance Launching and Growing New Schools Students are invited to explore four overarching questions Why are there opportunities for entrepreneurs in a sector that is funded with public dollars and delivered by public agencies Why is entrepreneurial activity aggregating around certain opportunities What are the possibilities and constraints faced by entrepreneurs in each opportunity area How can we evaluate the impact of these entrepreneurs efforts
