 survey China s immense wealth of art architecture and artefacts from prehistoric times to the twentieth century It covers the most prolific and broad ranging period of Chinese art history from the Song Dynasty with its spectacular landscape paintings to the Ming Dynasty with its lovely pottery William Watson considers architecture painting sculpture and the decorative arts in equal balance He follows styles and motifs as they are developed in each medium from one province to another and discusses materials and techniques as well as the iconography and function of every art form He also explores relationships between one medium and another tracing for example the influence of Buddhist iconography on sculptural traditions and on the architecture of temples and towers and showing how ceramic ornament affected the development of ornament in other
