an early lithograph and a monumental aquatint by Picasso and Lichtenstein's Modern Head series in several media. Each of one hundred numbered entries written by George L McKenna discusses a single print, several impressions or portions of series. Information on the date, size, state, signature, inscriptions, catalogue raisonné numbers, watermark, provenance, and exhibition and publication history of each print precedes the extended text. That text in essay form presents relevant biographical detail, analysis of imagery, description of style, and germane critical comment, footnoted with reference to publications cited in the bibliography at the end of the book. Depending upon the appearance of the original prints, illustrations are in full color or black and white in facsimile or reduced scale. Following the one hundred entries is a list of some six thousand other prints in the collection arranged alphabetically according to nationality, medium, and artist. The title, date, measurements, catalogue raisonné, and accession numbers of every print are specified, as well as the names of the donors of gifts. Two hundred and ninety of the prints are reproduced in small black and white plates in close proximity to their locations in the list. In addition, George L McKenna has written an introduction which recounts how the print collection has been formed through the years, beginning with the first purchases in 1932.
