Masters And Managers The Study Of Gender Relations In Urban Java:

Masters and Managers Norma Sullivan, 1994 Gender Relations in an Indonesian Society Nurul Ilmi Idrus, 2016-04-08

Gender Relations in an Indonesian Society offers a comprehensive ethnography of Bugis marriage through an exploration of gender identity and sexuality in this bilateral highly competitive hierarchical society Nurul Ilmi Idrus considers the fundamental concept of siriq honour shame in relation to gender socialization courtship sex within marriage the regulation of sexuality between genders the importance of kinship and status in marriage and the dynamics of marriage divorce and reconciliation This analysis considers the practical combination of Islamic tenets with local adat custom customary law and the effect of contemporary Indonesia's national ideology on cultural practices specific to Bugis society Gender, State and Social Power in Contemporary Indonesia Kate O'Shaughnessy, 2009-01-13 This book examines gender state and social power in Indonesia focusing in particular on state regulation of divorce from 1965 to 2005 and its impact on women Indonesia experienced high divorce rates in the 1950s and 1960s followed by a remarkable decline Already falling divorce rates were reinforced by the 1974 Marriage Law which for the first time regulated marriage for both Muslim and non Muslim Indonesians and restricted access to divorce This law defined the roles of men and women in Indonesian society vesting household leadership with husbands and the management of the household with wives Drawing on a wide selection of primary sources including court records legal codes newspaper reports fiction interviews and case studies this book provides a detailed historical account of this period of important social change exploring fully the impact and operation of state regulation of divorce including the New Order government's aims in enacting this legal framework its effects in practice and how it was utilised by citizens both men and women to advance their own agendas It argues that the Marriage Law was a tool of social control enacted by the New Order government in response to the social upheaval and protests experienced in the mid 1970s However it also shows that state power was not hegemonic it was both contested and co-opted by citizens with men and women enjoying different degrees of autonomy from the state This book explores all of these issues providing important insights on the nature of the New Order regime social power and gender relations both during the years of its rule and since its collapse Gender in an Urban World Judith N. DeSena, Ray Hutchison, 2008-02-14 Brings the analysis of gender from the margin to the center of urban theory This volume examines the influence of gender in shaping relations in urban spaces and places It represents a crack in the landscape of urban sociology and engages in the discourse of the field from a gendered perspective Women's Empowerment in Indonesia Sri Wiyanti Eddyono, 2018-10-26 The idea that development projects in poor countries are most effective when they harness the agency of women is a well known theme Most studies of women's agency in such projects however focus on the role of non governmental organizations in facilitating women's agency This book on the other hand based on extensive original research explores how women can effectively mobilize themselves on their own initiative The book considers poor people in informal settlements in Jakarta where government schemes for modernizing the city have often led to forced evictions The book examines different groups of women analyzes how they have challenged oppressive authority their husbands community leaders and local governments and provides detailed insights into women s attitudes and what has motivated them Overall the book provides a rich picture of women s empowerment and disempowerment Proceedings of the SOAS/TUFS Postgraduate Symposium Justin Watkins, 2006

The Agency of Women in Asia Lyn Parker, 2005 This book explores the meanings and operation of agency exercised by women in various cultures and contexts in Asia It examines how and under what conditions women in Asia express themselves It analyzes women s capacity for action how women take action and how women sometimes resist the discourses and conditions that shape their lives The book also discusses how this agency can be interpreted and assessed The contributors to this book examine particular women s practice and expression in specific contexts parasite singles especially unmarried young women in Japan whose unconventional lifestyles seem to effect a subversion of the expected female roles of daughters mothers and wives Indonesian women employed as domestic workers in Singapore the women from South Korea and the Philippines who have married Japanese men through the international marriage business system female Muslim healers in Lombok who work against fate rural Balinese women who have their babies in hospitals and female performers and performances in contemporary Indonesian theatre Three Essays on Intrahousehold Resource Allocation in Indonesia Mary Isabel Ames, 2002 Javanese Performances on an Indonesian Stage Barbara Hatley, 2008-08-07 During the dramatic economic and social transformation of late twentieth century Indonesia theatre in Central Java featured a familiar cast of rulers nobles clown servants and ordinary people However these performances were not a repetition of age old cultural traditions Instead by stretching the framework of Javanese theatre convention theatre troupes challenged dominant cultural and political values As political pressures intensified in the final months of the New Order regime these witty critical performances drew enthusiastic oppositionist crowds The dismantling of repressive state control after the fall of Suharto in 1998 diminished interest in political critiques from the stage and growing economic weakness caused patronage and sponsorship to dry up By 2003 2004 however a revival was underway as performers engaged with the politics of regional autonomy and democratization and actors responded to the devastating Yogyakarta earthquake of 2006 by staging shows in the worst affected areas to help sustain community spirit and pride in local culture Barbara Hatley s account of more than thirty years of theatre activities and social change shows how performers and audiences have adapted resisted incorporated and survived As Indonesian society evolves Javanese performances continue to engage with ever changing social contexts expressing the dynamic resilience and sense of identity of those who stage and watch them Ropewalking and Safety Nets Juliette Koning, Frans Hüsken, 2006 In this volume anthropologists and sociologists address the issue of changing forms of local social security in Indonesia pointing to increasingly exclusivist tendencies that leave the poor and weak out It provides rich data from cases studies in urban and rural Java Women in Asia: Women and political power Louise P.

The Entangled State Nicholas Herriman, 2012 For one year Nicholas Herriman lived in a village in Indonesia studying the way state officials interacted with local residents He did so by looking at the problems created by sorcery Local residents wished to be rid of alleged sorcerers and sometimes even killed them This presented a conundrum for state officials who generally sympathizing with the plight of the majority of local residents were constrained by the rule of law This book describes how state officials responded to the conundrum Prevailing models of state society interaction in Indonesia proved inadequate to describe the response so Herriman's study outlines a different model Publisher's website

Women as Political Actors in Indonesia's New Order Indra McCormick, 2003 The New Order system controlled Indonesian politics for over thirty years and its repercussions are still being played out This paper considers the way the New Order involved women behind the scenes in politics and how those women have gradually increased the range and influence of their activities Using her extensive research with women's organizations and female politicians in Indonesia Indra McCormick shows how women have acted as agents of political change whether through public protest party membership or the reclamation of their traditional areas of interest the family and the home She also discusses the important political careers of Megawati Sukarnoputri and Siti Hardiyanti Rukmana the daughters of past Indonesian presidents

Indonesian Women and Local Politics Kurniawati Hastuti Dewi, 2015-03 In an important social change female Muslim political leaders in Java have enjoyed considerable success in direct local elections following the fall of Suharto in Indonesia Indonesian women and Local Politics shows that Islam gender and social networks have been decisive in their political victories Islamic ideas concerning female leadership provide a strong religious foundation for their political campaigns However their approach to women s issues shows that female leaders do not necessarily adopt a woman s perspectives when formulating policies This new trend of Muslim women in politics will continue to shape the growth and direction of democratization in local politics in post Suharto Indonesia and will color future discourse on gender politics and Islam in contemporary Southeast Asia Women Resist Globalization Sheila Rowbotham,Stephanie Linkogle,2001

Review of Indonesian and Malaysian Affairs ,1998 Assembling Women Teri L. Caraway,2007 Despite the massive influx of women into the labor force as a result of globalization the gender inequalities at work have remained largely unchanged This book addresses two related questions What has prompted the feminization of manufacturing work in developing countries and why has it failed to significantly erode gender inequalities at work Teri L Caraway offers case studies and in depth analysis of employment changes in Indonesia combined with cross national data to show that the feminization of the workplace produced by industrialization policies has reconfigured and reproduced rather than overturned gender divisions of labor at work Caraway challenges the conventional wisdom that export oriented industrialization and women s cheap labor are the driving forces behind feminization Instead she argues the answers can be found in weak unions and current social practice Caraway employs information about a wide range of industries capital intensive male dominated non export firms as well as female dominated labor intensive export oriented industries in arriving at her conclusions Her findings will prove discouraging to anyone who hopes that globalization has become a positive force in improving the lives of women workers Caraway s multilevel methodology for analyzing changes in gendered patterns of employment and her introduction of gendered discourses of work as a major explanatory variable will make Assembling Women a valuable resource for women s studies scholars development economists political scientists and sociologists as well as all with an interest in Southeast Asian Studies and labor and industrial relations Indonesian Islam in a New Era Susan

Blackburn,Bianca J. Smith,Siti Syamsiyatun,2008 Indonesian Islam in a new era examines the religious practices and identities of Indonesian Muslim women in the post Suharto era After 1998 Indonesian Islam changed socially and nationally as society underwent sweeping alterations Based on new empirical research by sociologists political scientists and anthropologists from Indonesia and Australia the book underscores the negotiations Muslim women have made in arenas such as schools organisations popular culture and village life Whereas theology has until recently dominated studies of women and Islam in Indonesia this book breaks new ground by examining from social science perspectives how Indonesian women negotiate their Muslim identities Bibliography of Material on Indonesian Law in the English Language John Preston Ball,1996
