The Quick and the Dead Robert Vaughan,1984      A Distant Bugle Robert Vaughan,1984      Martyrdom and Sacrifice in Islam Meir Hatina,2016-11-14 Over the years the belief system around self sacrifice has become key to understanding the Middle East and its political relationships with the West although much of the literature and conversation has been restricted to modern concepts of jihadism The recent spate of scholarship relating to suicide bombers and jihadists studies these concepts without a broader understanding of the principle of martyrdom This book expands on the chronology of self sacrifice within Islam and contextualises the use of suicide bombings using details of the rise of martyrdom in places such as Iraq Lebanon Chechnya and Pakistan It historicises the background in which jihad has been glorified while also exploring contemporary methods of recruitment like the use of the internet The authors pay close attention to the different sects and factions of Islam and the differing interpretations of jihad that accompany these ideologies In the current political climate a book that explores martyrdom within the framework of historical perspectives geographical regions and the influence of outside cultures is essential

Ridpath Library of Universal Literature ,1908      Beirut, Imagining the City Ghenwa Hayek,2014-10-29 Beirut is the cultural commercial and economic hub of Lebanon But to what extent has the city affected and shaped the formation and perceptions of Lebanese national identity Ghenwa Hayek here explores how anxieties over the past present and future of Beirut have been articulated through a sense of dislocation present in Lebanese writing since the 1960s Drawing on theories of cultural studies geography and history the author uses an interdisciplinary framework to explore the role that spaces from rural to urban have played and continue to play in the defining and re defining of national identity in the seventy years since the creation of the Lebanese nation state This theoretical perspective coupled with a close reading of little explored contemporary writings lead Hayek to question the predominant assumption that Lebanese novelists only became engaged in discourses about place identity and individual and social belonging with the start of the fifteen year civil war and the destruction of Beirut s city centre Instead the book shows that particular geographical imaginaries have been mobilized to describe question and debate Lebanese identity since the 1960s and that some go back even further into the late nineteenth century This re reading calls for a re evaluation of some of the most predominant assumptions about Lebanon and the processes of Lebanese identity formation across the country s modern history Examining a wide range of modern and contemporary literature Hayek charts the rise to cultural prominence of the city of Beirut as a significant player in shaping perceptions of Lebanese culture and identity

The Romantic Spirit Mary June Kay,1984      Waterfronts Revisited Heleni Porfyriou,Marichela Sepe,2016-08-05 Waterfronts Revisited addresses the historical evolution of the relationship between port and city and re examines waterfront development by looking at the urban territory and historical city in their complexity and entirety By identifying guiding values urban patterns and typologies and local needs and experiences cities can break the isolation of the harbor by reconnecting it to the urban structure its functions spaces and forms Using the UNESCO recommendation for the Historic Urban Landscape as the guiding concept and a tool for managing urban preservation and change this collection of essays illustrates solutions to issues of globalisation commercialization of space and commoditisation of culture in waterfront development Through sixteen selected case studies Editors Heleni Porfyriou and Marichela Sepe offer planners and urban designers a broad spectrum of alternative solutions to waterfront regeneration interventions and redevelopments addressing sustainability regional cultural diversity and the debate between conservation and transformation

Posters Elizabeth E. Guffey,2014-10-15

From band posters stapled to telephone poles to the advertisements hanging at bus shelters to the inspirational prints that adorn office walls posters surround us everywhere but do we know how they began Telling the story of this ephemeral art form Elizabeth E Guffey reexamines the poster's roots in the nineteenth century and explores the relevance they still possess in the age of digital media Even in our world of social media and electronic devices she argues few forms of graphic design can rival posters for sheer spatial presence and they provide new opportunities to communicate across public spaces in cities around the globe Guffey charts the rise of the poster from the revolutionary lithographs that papered nineteenth century London and Paris to twentieth century works of propaganda advertising pop culture and protest Examining contemporary examples she discusses Palestinian martyr posters and West African posters that describe voodoo activities or Internet con men stopping along the way to uncover a rich variety of posters from the Soviet Union China the United States and more Featuring 150 stunning images this illuminating book delivers a fresh look at the poster and offers revealing insights into the designs and practices of our twenty first century world

The Martyrdom of Man William Winwood Reade,1924

Versions of Heroism in Modern American Drama Julie Adam,2016-07-27

Taking as its starting point the death of tragedy debate and focusing on the supposed disappearance from the stage of the individual tragic hero the book views selected plays and writings on the theatre by Miller Williams Maxwell Anderson and O'Neill as exemplifying four versions of heroism idealism martyrdom self reflection and survival Julie Adam shows that these diverse playwrights share a desire to redefine tragic heroism in individualistic liberal terms

Martyrdom in the Sikh Tradition Louis E. Fenech,2000

Through an analysis of the Sikh scriptures eighteenth and nineteenth century Sikh literature as well as the voluminous tracts and newspapers produced under the auspices of the late nineteenth century reform movement the Singh Sabha this book examines how and why Sikhs began to represent their history as a history of persecutions and martyrdoms

Holy People of the World Phyllis G. Jestice, 2004-12-15 A cross cultural encyclopedia of the most significant holy people in history examining why people in a wide range of religious traditions throughout the world have been regarded as divinely inspired. The first reference on the subject to span all the world's major religions. Holy People of the World: A Cross Cultural Encyclopedia examines the impact of individuals who through personal charisma and inspirational deeds served both as glorious examples of human potential and as envoys for the divine. Holy People of the World contains nearly 1 100 biographical sketches of venerated men and women. Written by religious studies experts and historians each article focuses on the basic question How did this person come to be regarded as holy? In addition the encyclopedia features 20 survey articles on views of holy people in the major religious traditions such as Islam, Buddhism and African religions as well as 64 comparative articles on aspects of holiness and veneration across cultures such as awakening and conversion experiences, heredity, gender, asceticism and persecution. Whether exploring by religion, culture or historic period this extensively cross-referenced resource offers a wealth of insights into one of the most revealing and least explored common denominators of spiritual traditions. International Conference on Reconstruction of War-Damaged Areas, 1990. The History of Christian Martyrdom John Foxe, 1563. Great Debates in American History: The civil war; with an introduction by H.
