Liedtke,Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.),2007 Presents a catalog that surveys the Dutch paintings found in the Metropolitan Museum of Art Goya Janis

A. Tomlinson, 2002-03-11 Francisco Goya y Lucientes 1746-1828 created magnificent paintings, tapestry designs, prints and drawings over the course of his long and productive career. Women frequently appeared as the subjects of Goya's works from his brilliantly painted cartoons for the Royal Tapestry Factory to his stunning portraits of some of the most powerful women in Madrid. This groundbreaking book is the first to examine the representations of women within Goya's multifaceted art and in so doing it sheds new light on the evolution of his artistic creativity as well as on the roles assumed by women in late eighteenth and early nineteenth century Spain. Many of Goya's most famous works are featured and explicated in this beautifully designed and produced book. The artist's famous tapestry cartoons are included along with the tapestries woven after them for the royal palaces of the Prado and the Escorial. Goya's infamous Naked Maja and Clothed Maja are also highlighted with a discussion on whether these works were painted at the same time and how they might have originally hung in relation to one another. Focus is also placed on Goya's more experimental prints and drawings in which the artist depicted women alternatively as targets of satire or of sympathy or of admiration. Essays by eminent authorities provide a historical and cultural context for Goya's work including a discussion on the significance of fashion and dress during the period. The resultant volume is surely to be treasured by all who admire Goya's art and by those who are interested in women's issues of his time.

French Paintings in The Metropolitan Museum of Art from the Early Eighteenth Century through the Revolution Katharine Baetjer, 2019-04-15 This publication catalogues The Met's remarkable collection of eighteenth century French paintings in the context of the powerful institutions that governed the visual arts of the time: the Académie Royale de Peinture et de Sculpture, the Académie de France Rome and the Paris Salon. At the height of their authority during the eighteenth century, these institutions nurtured the talents of artists in all genres. The Met's collection encompasses stunning examples of work by leading artists of the period, including Antoine Watteau, Mezzetin, Jean Siméon Chardin, The Silver Tureen, François Boucher, The Toilette of Venus, Joseph Siffred Duplessis, Benjamin Franklin, Jean Baptiste Greuze, Broken Eggs, Hubert Robert, the Bagatelle decorations, Jacques Louis David, The Death of Socrates, the Van Blarenberghes, The Outer Port of Brest, and François Gérard, Charles Maurice de Talleyrand-Périgord. In the book's introduction, author Katharine Baetjer provides a history of the Académie, its establishment principles and regulations, along with a discussion of the beginnings of public art discourse in France, taking us through the reforms unleashed by the Revolution. The consequent democratizing of the Salon brought about by radicals under the leadership of Jacques Louis David encouraged the formation of new publics with new tastes in subject matter and genres. The catalogue features 126 paintings by 50 artists. Each section includes a short biography of the artist and in-depth discussions of individual paintings incorporating the most up-to-date scholarship.
