Maternity, Medicine, and Power Carolyn Fishel Sargent, 2023-04-28 This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1989    A Companion to Medical Anthropology Merrill Singer, Pamela I. Erickson, 2015-04-20 A Companion to Medical Anthropology examines the current issues controversies and state of the field in medical anthropology today Provides an expert view of the major topics and themes to concern the discipline since its founding in the 1960s Written by leading international scholars in medical anthropology Covers environmental health global health biotechnology syndemics nutrition substance abuse infectious disease and sexuality and reproductive health and other topics    Childbirth Across Cultures Helaine Selin, 2009-12-01 This book will explore the childbirth process through globally diverse perspectives in order to offer a broader context with which to think about birth We will address multiple rituals and management models surrounding the labor and birth process from communities across the globe Labor and birth are biocultural events that are managed in countless ways We are particularly interested in the notion of power Who controls the pregnancy and the birth Is it the hospital the doctor or the in laws and in which cultures does the mother have the control These decisions regarding place of birth position who receives the baby and even how the mother may or may not behave during the actual delivery are all part of the different ways that birth is conducted One chapter of the book will be devoted to midwives and other birth attendants There will also be chapters on the Evolution of Birth on Women's Birth Narratives and on Child Spacing and Breastfeeding This book will bring together global research conducted by professional anthropologists midwives and doctors who work closely with the individuals from the cultures they are writing about offering a unique perspective direct from the cultural group    Documenting Death Adrienne E. Strong, 2020-11-03 A free open access ebook is available upon publication Learn more at www.luminosoa.org Documenting Death is a gripping ethnographic account of the deaths of pregnant women in a hospital in a low resource setting in Tanzania Through an exploration of everyday ethics and care practices on a local maternity ward anthropologist Adrienne E Strong untangles the reasons Tanzania has achieved so little sustainable success in reducing maternal mortality rates despite global development support Growing administrative pressures to document good care serve to preclude good care in practice while placing frontline healthcare workers in moral and ethical peril Maternal health emergencies expose the precarity of hospital social relations and accountability systems which together continue to lead to the deaths of pregnant women    Births And Power W. Penn Handwerker, 2019-04-11 This book challenges orthodox public perspectives on reproduction It relies on participant observation field censuses interviews and use of official demographic epidemiological and health statistics    Encyclopedia of Medical Anthropology Carol R. Ember, Melvin Ember, 2003-12-31 Medical practitioners and the ordinary citizen are becoming more aware that we need to understand cultural variation in medical belief and practice The more we know how health and disease are managed in different cultures the more we can recognize what is culture bound in our own medical belief and practice The Encyclopedia of Medical Anthropology is unique because it is the first reference work to describe the cultural practices relevant to health in the world's cultures and to provide an overview of important topics in medical anthropology No other single reference work comes close to matching the depth and breadth of information on the varying cultural background of health and illness around the world More than 100 experts anthropologists and other social scientists have contributed their firsthand experience of medical cultures from around the world National Library of Medicine Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.), 1990 Ethnography of Fertility and Birth Carol P. MacCormack, 1994 This text combines anthropological medical insights into the process of human reproduction Edinburgh Medical Journal, 1880 Birth in Four Cultures Brigitte Jordan, 1993 While the process of childbirth is in some sense everywhere the same it is also everywhere different in that each culture has produced a birthing system that is strikingly dissimilar from the others Based on her fieldwork in the United States Sweden Holland and Yucatan Jordan develops a framework for the discussion and investigation of different birthing systems Illustrated with useful examples and lively anecdotes from Jordan's own fieldwork the Fourth Edition of this innovative comparative ethnography brings the reader to a deeper understanding of childbirth as a culturally grounded biosocially mediated and interactionally achieved event Progressive Medicine Hobart Amory Hare, 1915 A quarterly digest of advances discoveries and improvements in the medical and surgical sciences American Medicine, 1904 Birthing in the Pacific Vicki Lukere, Margaret Jolly, 2002 This collection explores birthing in the Pacific against the background of debates about tradition and modernity A wide ranging introduction and conclusion together with case studies from Papua New Guinea New Caledonia Vanuatu Fiji and Tonga show how simple contrasts between traditional and modern practices technocratic and organic models of childbirth indigenous and foreign approaches and notions of before and after can be potent but problematic The difficulties entailed confront public health programs concerned with practical issues of infant and maternal survival in developing countries as well as scholarly analyses of birthing in cross cultural contexts The introduction analyzes central concepts and themes questions of survival safety and well being the significance of postures practices and sites the role of midwives traditional birth attendants and nurses and the role of men in birthing and reproduction Contributors four anthropologists a historian and a community health worker offer insights into the ways mothers midwives and nurses relate the traditional and the modern and how ideas of tradition and modernity have shaped representations of Pacific childbirth The conclusion provides researchers with a guide to relevant literature from several disciplines As a whole the collection warns against either a celebration of emancipation through biomedicine or a recuperative romance about women's past powers in reproduction The American illustrated medical dictionary. 1900

[1st ed.], 1900      The American Illustrated Medical Dictionary William Alexander Newman Dorland, 1901      The American Illustrated Medical Dictionary, 1923      Cambridge Anthropology, 1998      Disciplining Birth Kaosar Afsana, 2005      Africa News, 1989-08      Borgu and Its Kingdoms Marjorie H. Stewart, 1993 This text documents the history of Borgu a little known area now situated in the northern part of the Republic of Benin and the north western region of Nigeria from the period when Mande peoples migrated from their homeland to settle in many parts of the Western Sudan including Borgu By the ninth century they had established long distance trade the art of making brass and copper artifacts by the lost wax technique was known and large political entities were being formed By the 15th century Borgu consisted of three kingdoms whose rulers claimed close kinship ties and the king s position was firmly rooted in ancient religious traditions The historical reconstruction of Borgu society rests on a detailed examination of oral tradition linguistic and genealogical data archival records and ethnographic fieldwork
