on assessment and instruction precede strands that focus on critical concepts. Replete with suggestions for class activities and field extensions, the new edition features current research across topics and an innovative thread throughout chapters and strands. Multi-tiered systems of support as they apply to mathematics instruction. THE Journal, 1995 You Can't Make Me! Sylvia Rockwell, 2006-09-22 How do you handle defiant disruptive students? A teacher's most challenging problem is the student who is frequently defiant and disruptive. These students create problems for themselves and for the classroom as a whole. In this teacher-friendly guide, Sylvia Rockwell uses her considerable experience to show you how to select and implement the most effective behavioral interventions to address the needs of these problem students while maintaining a cooperative classroom environment. This book integrates compelling real-life teaching anecdotes with descriptions of research-based strategies to help students learn appropriate behavior, both those with emotional behavior disorders (EBD) or other disabilities as well as those with other behavioral difficulties. Special and general education teachers as well as administrators at the elementary level will find this book a vivid, powerful tool to help intervene effectively when behavior problems occur. Educators will find discussions on how to identify typical and atypical development, understand group development including stages, roles, and strategies, manage class-wide behavior, addressing conditions, consequences, and curriculum, understand the behavior-achievement connection with specifics on unit and lesson planning, manage aggression and conflict, develop resilience in students, teachers, and parents. This valuable resource also provides classroom-ready materials and other reproducibles, including a unique parent supplement to help parents understand your classroom strategies, work on behavior problems at home, and communicate effectively with school personnel. Catalogue Montgomery Ward, 1941 Math Made Easy Deborah Lock, 2014 Resources in Education, 1997 Math Made Easy Sean McArdle, 2001 Instructor, 1978 Field Experience Guide: Resources for Teachers of Elementary and Middle School Mathematics John A.
