Wyler, 2005-09-15 Susan Wyler's indispensable classic is back in print now better than ever with more than a dozen new menus, over 70 new recipes, and a wealth of updated strategies. The original edition of Cooking for a Crowd won great praise all around. Florence Fabricant named it one of the New York Times best books of the season. Perla Meyers, author of How to Peel a Peach, advised: "Keep this book as a reference whenever you are entertaining." And Rose Levy Berenbaum, author of The Cake Bible, declared: "She puts together the components of a dinner with the passion, perfection, and ease of a master painter. The game plans enable any cook to impress without risk." This new edition builds on the premise of the original that many a home cook can manage the occasional dinner party for 4 to 6, but when it comes to entertaining a crowd of 10 or more, the logistics become exponentially more complicated. Wyler's ingeniously user-friendly combination of creative menus, do-ahead game plans, and crowd-pleasing recipes makes it possible for any home cook to entertain on a large scale. Wyler has expanded the volume to include over 225 recipes and 35 menus for a variety of sizes and occasions, such as Tuscan Lunch for 12 to 16, Black and Orange Halloween Party for 24, even a Wedding Supper for 50. A perfect balance of inspiring and instructive, Cooking for a Crowd is a must-have for all home cooks who want to bring large groups of family and friends together at the table. The Century Cook Book Jennie Adrienné Hansey, 1894 Spiralizer Cookbook: 24 Spiralizer Recipes For

Butkevich, 2010-12 How does an engineer by education and heart turn into a sales and marketing person who eventually writes a cook book as he heads into retirement? I was an engineer that eventually steered my career into sales and marketing. This had me traveling all over the country and eating and entertaining in some of the finest restaurants this Country has to offer I actually got paid for eating great meals in some of the best restaurants in the United States I never thought or even dreamed of cooking until I became unemployed many years later This is when I started watching Rachael Giada and the other food network shows I was able to find my new passion for cooking I started to embellish upon those same recipes and enhanced them even more I got more ideas while eating in some of the local restaurants in Massachusetts I tried to cook some of those dishes I also got some recipes and ideas from talking to friends who also enjoy good food and cooking I started to bring some of my meals to work for my friends to try They have been the ones that encouraged me to write this cook book Every one of the meals that I brought in was given outstanding reviews I only hope that you will like these easy tasty recipes and enjoy them as much as we have Remember most of these can be cooked in less than a half hour and in most cases all of these recipes include the prep time for that half hour
