Captain Matthew Flinders, R.N. Matthew Flinders, Charles Mathieu Isidore Decaen, 1912 United States Plant Patents United States. Patent and Trademark Office, 2006-12-19 Matthew Flinders Matthew Flinders, 2002 This wonderful collection of letters chronicles the extraordinary life of Flinders and is designed to give an insight into his fascinating career. In just twenty-three years from 1791 to his death at the age of forty in 1814, Flinders served under William Bligh on the famous breadfruit expedition to Jamaica, fought a celebrated battle against the French, discovered Bass Strait, and charted Tasmania. Circumnavigated the Australian continent and wrote one of the legendary books of exploration. This beautifully illustrated publication offers over one hundred of Flinders' letters documenting his life's great achievements. It includes highlights such as the historically significant letter to Sir Joseph Banks volunteering for the formidable task of completing the discovery of New Holland and a recently discovered letter from Flinders to George Bass which throws new light on their intimate relationship.

Trim, The Cartographer's Cat Matthew Flinders, Gillian Dooley, Philippa Sandall, 2019-10-17 Not many ships' cats have even one memorial statue let alone six. But Trim does, including one outside Euston Station in London, proudly unveiled by Prince William on the bicentenary of Matthew Flinders' death, 19 July 2014. Trim was the ship's cat who accompanied Matthew Flinders on his voyages to circumnavigate and map the coastline of Australia from 1801 to 1803. He lived quite the adventurous life As a small kitten he fell overboard while at sea but managed to swim back to the vessel and climb back on board by scaling a rope This cemented his position as Flinders s beloved companion and together they survived a Pacific voyage the circumnavigation of Australia and a shipwreck When Flinders was imprisoned by the French in Mauritius in 1803 Trim shared his captivity until one day he mysteriously disappeared which heartbreakingly Flinders attributed to his being stolen and eaten by a hungry slave Trim The Cartographer s Cat is an ode to this much loved ship s cat which will warm the heart of any cat lover The first part of the book reproduces Flinders own whimsical tribute to Trim written while in captivity in the early 1800s with added friendly footnotes to provide some background to Flinders s numerous literary allusions and nautical terms Next the book discusses where Flinders was when he wrote his tribute and why and what his letters and journals from that time tell us about his sporting affectionate and useful companion Finally we learn what Trim s views on all of this might have been in a fun and fanciful observation on his premature epitaph

Accompanying all of this are beautiful maps historical photographs quirky original illustrations by illustrator Ad Long and excerpts from Flinders original script showing his beautiful handwriting This book will make a unique and treasured gift for Flinders fans Trim fans and cat lovers around the world
