Make History Art Worrell, Paul Bambrick-Santoyo, 2023-05-09 Make History with Your Students From bestselling author Paul Bambrick Santoyo and Art Worrell Uncommon Schools Director of History Instruction comes Make History an inspiring book on how educators can take history instruction to the next level History teachers face unique challenges in introducing history lessons to students and they are under increasing pressure to get it right in an age of social progress and social divisiveness This book is a guide to bring the past to life while teaching students how to make sense of history Use the ideas and techniques to turn your history students into writers readers and thinkers who are ready not only to succeed in college but also to become leaders and change agents By showing how to teach rigorous engaging lessons that center student thinking and voice Make History turns history class into the most exciting part of a student's day Reimagine history education to help students build their own unique arguments about the past Ask tough questions to help students grapple with difficult historical periods Set the stage for authentic discourse that students remember long past the bell Give students the tools to become socially aware build their own identity and think and write like historians Teachers and instructional coaches in grades 5-12 will love this new insightful approach to history one that works for today's classrooms The Journal of Education Thomas Williams Bicknell, Albert Edward Winship, Anson Wood Belding, 1929 The Wives of Western Philosophy Jennifer Forestal, Menaka Philips, 2020-12-16 The Wives of Western Philosophy examines the lives and experiences of the wives and women associated with nine distinct political thinkers from Socrates to Marx in order to explore the gendered patterns of intellectual labor that permeate the foundations of Western political thought Organized chronologically and representative of three eras in the history of political thought Ancient Early Modern and Modern nine critical biographical chapters explore the everyday acts of intellectual labor and partnership involving these wives of the canon Taking seriously their narratives as intimate partners reveals that wives have labored in remarkable ways throughout the history of political thought In some cases their labors mark the conceptual boundaries of political life in others they serve as uncredited resources for the production of political ideas In all instances however these wives and intimates are pushed to the margins of the history of political thought The Wives of Western Philosophy brings these women to the center of scholarly interest In so doing it provides new insights into the intellectual biographies of some of the most famed men in political theory while also raising important questions about the gendered politics of intellectual labor which shape our receptions of canonical texts and thinkers and which sustain the academy even today In Covenant with God Carmen María Cervantes, 2000-09-16 Published in both English and Spanish In Covenant with God is intended primarily for participants who are in small missionary and evangelizing communities This book can easily be adapted for use in other pastoral models such as grupos juveniles parish youth and young adult groups and apostolic movements In Covenant with God is designed to begin a process of continuous evangelization and integral formation that leads to a Christian praxis once the participants have had a basic experience of life in a community Its objectives are to lead the participants to discover themselves as persons in relationship to God to help them understand the meaning of the Covenant and to promote their living out the Covenant both personally and communally In Covenant with God emphasizes the participants vocation and mission in salvation history from a theological and an anthropological perspective

Tradition, Interpretation, and Science John S. Nelson, 1986-12-15 This book reassesses the academic field of political theory and brings into sharp relief its problems and opportunities Here for the first time diverse theorists coordinate their arguments through a common focus This focus is the writing of John G Gunnell Gunnell attacks a set of myths said to plague almost every recent theory about politics the myth of the given the myth of science myths of theory the myth of tradition and the myth of the political He argues that these all alienate political theory from substantive inquiry and actual practice Contributors include Richard E Flathman Russell L Hanson George Kateb Paul F Kress J Donald Moon John S Nelson J G A Pocock Herbert G Reid Ira L Strauber Nathan Tarcov and Sheldon S Wolin They respond on behalf of projects in the new history of political theory epic theory phenomenology traditional theory and political deconstruction These discussions also address the theories of Hans Georg Gadamer J rgen Habermas Karl Marx Leo Strauss Alain Touraine and Ludwig Wittgenstein At the conclusion of the volume Gunnell reconsiders his arguments in light of the respondent s remarks His challenges thus provide a series of confrontations both exciting and provocative among major theorists The result is a lively debate about what political theory is how it relates to political history and practice and how it involves epistemology The authors probe a broad range of questions about practices of politics and traditions of discourse and they identify priorities for the future of the field

Idea of Pure Critique Iain MacKenzie, 2004-05-01 What is required of the idea of critique if it is to overcome indifference This question addresses core themes in modern post Kantian and European philosophy challenging theory s resignation in the face of contemporary political and economic formations If indifference is to be overcome critique must be demarcated in its purity as an idea of critique in and of itself For the idea of critique to become pure we must view critique as the construction of difference only pure critique as the construction of difference can overcome our current age of indifference The Idea of Pure Critique will appeal to students of Kant as well as to the many interested in Deleuze and Guattari s contribution to philosophies of difference More fundamentally the book presents a series of political and philosophical challenges to the apathy that pervades modern forms of life

Digital Modernism Jessica Pressman, 2014-02 Digital Modernism examines how and why some of the most innovative works of online electronic literature adapt and allude to literary modernism Digital literature has been celebrated as a postmodern form that grows out of contemporary technologies subjectivities and aesthetics but this book provides an alternative genealogy Exemplary cases show electronic literature looking back to modernism for inspiration and source material in content form and ideology through which to critique contemporary culture In so doing this literature renews and reframes rather than rejects a literary tradition that it also reconfigures to center around media To support her argument

Pressman pairs modernist works by Pound Joyce and Bob Brown with major digital works like William Poundstone's Project for the Tachistoscope Bottomless Pit 2005 Young hae Chang Heavy Industries's Dakota and Judd Morrissey's The Jew's Daughter With each pairing she demonstrates how the modernist movement of the 1920s and 1930s laid the groundwork for the innovations of electronic literature In sum the study situates contemporary digital literature in a literary genealogy in ways that rewrite literary history and reflect back on literature's past modernism in particular to illuminate the crucial role that media played in shaping the ambitions and practices of that period
