Casablanca's Conscience Robert Weldon Whalen, 2024-02-06 A new look at a beloved classic film that explores the philosophical dynamics of Casablanca Celebrating its eightieth anniversary this year Casablanca remains one of the world's most enduringly favorite movies It won three Academy Awards for Best Picture Best Director and Best Adapted Screenplay It is still commonly quoted We'll always have Paris and Here's looking at you kid And who can forget You must remember this a kiss is just a kiss Yet no one expected much to come of this little film certainly not its blockbuster stars or even the studio producing it So how did this hastily cranked out 1940s film despite its many limitations become one of the greatest films ever made How is it that year after year decade after decade it continues to appear in the lists of the greatest movies ever produced And why do audiences still weep when Rick and Ilsa part The answer according to Casablanca s Conscience is to paraphrase Rick It s true Much has already been written about the film and the career defining performances of Bogart and Bergman Casablanca is an epic tale of love betrayal and sacrifice set against the backdrop of World War II Yet decades later it continues to capture the imagination of filmgoers In Casablanca s Conscience author Robert Weldon Whalen explains why it still resonates so deeply Applying a new lens to an old classic Whalen focuses on the film s timeless themes Exile Purgatory Irony Love Resistance and Memory He then engages the fictional characters Rick Ilsa and the others against the philosophical and theological discourse of their real contemporaries Hannah Arendt Dietrich Bonhoeffer and Albert Camus The relationships between fictional and historical persons illuminate both the film s era as well as perennial human concerns Both the film and the work of the philosophers explore dimensions of the human experience which while extreme are familiar to everyone It s the themes that resonate with the viewer that have sustained it as an evergreen classic all these years

Short Stories From The Library of Wayne King Livingston Wayne King Livingston,2011-06-10 The stories you are about to read are from traveling and a culmination from eight years of my wife and I living among the people in lands of rich stories not excluding Ireland It has given me great joy to write of our adventures in a format that takes the best of times stirred with some pathos of fallen friends and then mixed into the tales within These reminiscences will be treasured by my wife Pat and I forever No one character is represented in his or her entirety and no narrative can be said to be an actual event These storied chapters herein capture our lives as it might have happened I have pasted the wonderful characters together from all the many vignettes we encompassed while dwelling amongst one of the most reflective societies today Not reflective in some lofty sense but as in a mirror of life that needs the rich loamy land and vibrant countryside to place one s heart into Ireland with not much doubt is the last and most beautiful virginal country left today Thanks to flying there are many corners and stories on this earth that I have seen and wrote about of great exotic beauty and depth but the endowments of pastoral Ireland leave one breathless It s soft and natural charm is the result of native Irishmen resisting the huge industrial revolution that has changed lives within the short span of our diminutive existences The Emerald Isle is a refuge from the unbridled growth of material things Time will undoubtedly take this last resort but there are those of us who have advantaged ourselves with an affair of the heart a sojourn with Ireland The Author The Report: Morocco 2012 ,2012

A Hard Fought Ship John A Rodgaard,2024-06-30 Here is the exhaustive and exhilarating story of HMS Venomous one of sixty seven V W destroyers built at the end of the Great War that were to play a key role in the struggle to keep the sea lanes open in the Atlantic Home Waters and the Mediterranean during the following war Her story was perhaps the most memorable of all her class When war broke out she was to find herself in the front line as the German blitzkrieg swept across Europe in 1940 and the V Ws made high speed dashes across the Channel to bring troops and civilians back from Calais Boulogne and Dunkirk and prepared for the expected invasion Later that year she and her sister ships escorted the Atlantic convoys which supplied our Russian allies with the weapons to halt the German advance She returned to the Mediterranean and took part in Operation Pedestal to save Malta and as the allies prepared for the landings in North Africa she was ordered to escort the destroyer depot ship HMS Hecla to the invasion beaches When Hecla was torpedoed off the coast off Morocco Venomous fought the attacking U boat and rescued 500 survivors She escorted convoys along the coast of North Africa including the first through convoy from Gibraltar to Alexandria and she joined the invasion force to Sicily during Operation Husky In October 1943 she returned to Britain for a major refit at Falmouth when she was converted to an air target ship for training Barracuda torpedo bombers based at Douglas Isle of Man and then after being transferred to the east coast she was nearly lost in a hurricane before being sent to Kristiansand to accept the surrender of German naval forces Venomous and her sister ships were all scrapped after the War but her extraordinary career during which she fought without cessation is brought to life in this rousing and beautifully told ship biography a fitting memorial to the V Ws and the men who served in them I would rate this as being in the same class as The Cruel Sea for a picture of small ship life in World War Two The Naval Review A portrayal of life on a wartime destroyer with a depth and insight that is possible unequalled by any previously published work Warship Annual This book is outstanding for its detailed insight into the life on not just a single destroyer but by extension life at sea aboard and Royal Navy destroyer The Northern Mariner A Hard Fought Ship is a vivid portrait of a fighting vessel and the men who operated her Warships International Fleet Review Highly recommended to both naval historians and the general public Mariner's Mirror It is an exemplary ship biography where a detailed narrative of the destroyer's exploits are brought to life by a wealth of first hand accounts Navy News This book is a detailed and thrilling account of the life of a typical V W class destroyer Sea Breezes The Making of Modern Africa: The nineteenth century to the partition ,1968 "Movies Were Always Magical" Leo Verswijver,2003-03-13 This work is a compilation of interviews with 19 film actors directors and producers who were all part of the studio system that made Hollywood such a powerful and illustrious city in the era of the 1950s Each of the celebrities interviewed for this work have made lasting contributions to the film industry and some of them continue to do so Pat Boone Jeff Corey Kathryn Grayson Beverly Garland Samuel Goldwyn Jr Jane Greer Stanley Kramer Janet Leigh Joan Leslie Sheree North Janis Paige Luise Rainer Paula Raymond John Saxon Vincent Sherman Robert Wise Jane Withers Jane Wyatt and Fred Zinnemann speak candidly about their work and experiences in Hollywood and share many of their memories Each interview is followed by a complete filmography for each film that the actor director or producer was a part of giving such information as the U S distributor year of release director producer screenwriter editor composer running time and cast for each film The Making of David Lean's Lawrence of Arabia Adrian
